

Personal Mention

Recorder Frank G. Leslie left Tuesday morning on his annual vacation. He went down to San Francisco to visit his sister, Mrs. Florence R. Brown. He expected to be gone ten days.

Miss Lorraine Norris left Tuesday evening last week for Vancouver, Washington, to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Dorothy Caswallader, to Pfc. Robert J. Long of the U. S. Marine Corps. Miss Caswallader made a visit of several days with relatives in Coquille during the latter part of May. Miss Norris returned home last Thursday.

Mrs. Lella McClure, of the Excel Dress Shop, left Friday evening by bus for Coos Bay, to board the train for Seattle, Washington, where she will spend about a week reviewing the style markets and purchasing stock for the local shop. Mrs. McClure hoped to spend a day or two in Portland, too, before her return.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Watson have had as their guests for two weeks Mrs. Watson's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Taylor, who are with the Red Cross in San Diego. The Watson's two daughters have also visited at home. Miss Jean Watson is an instructor in Bend, Ore., while Miss Dorothy Watson is employed by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company in Washington. The guests left to return to their various positions during the second week of June.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Lee left for her home in Portland Monday evening, after spending about two months here and at Coos Bay visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Lee lived at Arago for many years. She is a sister of Mrs. R. S. Knowlton, who left here many years ago and resides in Oakland, Calif.

Frances Ann Kern remained in Eugene for a longer vacation with her sister, Mrs. George Alder, whom Mrs. Clifford Kern returned home last week-end. Mrs. Fred Marneau and Frances Ann and their mother went to Eugene for the commencement exercises at the University where George Alder was graduated Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Alder will move to Elmira soon and Mr. Alder will preach there for the summer before accepting the position of assistant professor of Greek at the University this fall.
