T/Sgt. Leander Panter, who was at Riverton a few weeks ago, accompanied by his wife and little daughter, to see his father, William Panter, who was ill, is to be mustered out of the service at Fort Lewis this week. The senior Panter's health remains such that he is unable to carry on with the work on their big ranch and Leander is being released from the service and will move immediately to the ranch where he will assist his brother, Leander, who has found it very hard to carry on all the work there with the present shortage of farm help. Mr. and Mrs. Leland Panter will live in their trailer house on the ranch until the heavy summer farm work eases up, after which will probably build a new house.

W. L. Buoy Going To Hawaii For Navy Reassignment

Wayland L. Buoy, MoMM1/c, U. S. N. R., left Shoemaker, Calif., last Friday bound for Hawaii, where he will be reassigned a ship for further service in Pacific waters. He returned from out of the Pacific the last of February, after having served out there for over three years aboard the patrol USS Dixie. He was married to Miss Cherie Mae Hartwell of Riverton during his thirty-day leave at that time and then went east to school. From there he was recently returned to Shoemaker, where his bride joined him, after the closing of her school at Coos Bay.

She has undertaken a big administrative job in Oakland as Community Playground Supervisor, with a faculty consisting of highly trained and specialized men and women in the fields of Drama, Physical Education, Crafts, a student Council director, a swimming instructor under Y.W.C.A., and others. She is enjoying her work very much but hopes to be back in time to take her beloved Coquille Camp Fire group of girls on a week's outing before her school opens this fall at Coos Bay.
