Mamie Rebekah Lodge Notes

The Mamie Rebekah Lodge enjoyed its regular session with a fine attendance the evening of July 10 and several visitors were present from other lodges. They were Helen Parent and Clarence Parent, of Ferndale, Calif., Lella McCue and friend, from Riverton, and Mildred Schaefer, of Coos Bay. Mrs. Schaefer stated that the Coos Bay lodge has chartered a bus for transportation to the county convention and that anyone wishing to go on this bus should get in touch with "Butch" Briner.

Initiation was held after the regular meeting and five new members were admitted. They were Christine Smith, Mae Holbrook, Kathrine Homeny, Dora Smith and Ida Sherrard. These candidates and the drill team officers wore formal. The many colored dresses, made a pretty initiation service.

The drill captain and lodge extend their thanks to all the drill team members for their good work. We would also like to thank our feed committee for the lovely lunch. The tables were prettily decorated with pink roses and buds. Doughnuts, ice cream and coffee were served. The hall was also decorated with a bouquet of glads, also several vases of pink roses and rosebuds.

This lodge will have a joint meeting with Bandon on July 24, and it is hoped that all of the new members will attend this convention if possible. The transportation committee members are "Butch" Briner and J. P. Beyers. The flower committee is composed of Ruth Beyers, Ida Oerding and Mrs. Simmons. They will make or buy corsages for the convention officers.

Gena Chase is reported ill at home. Also Floyd Chase's wife has just come home with their new baby. Everyone who can is asked to pay a visit to the sick members.
