

Lieut. Quentin Towne Receives Air Medal

Mrs. Quentin H. Towne, of Fairview route, has received official notice from the U. S. Army Tenth Air Force that her husband, Lieut. Towne, was one of several with the Tenth who received Air Medals for "meritorious achievement in aerial flight." Between Jan. 19 and May 6, Quentin took part in 25 night flight combat missions over Burma where enemy attack was expected, as a pilot. "The flying skill and aggressiveness evidenced by these officers reflect credit upon the Army Air Forces of the United States," says the bulletin.

T. Sgt. George Belloni Home On Furlough

Technical Sergeant George Belloni, who had been in England and Germany for nine months, most of that time on the continent, came in last Thursday to visit home folks and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Belloni. He landed in the U. S. a month ago and stopped in Eugene for two weeks of his 30-day furlough. When he reports back for duty it will be at Fort Jackson in South Carolina.

George says the German country is a good one to be gone from.

Curtis Holverstott Has Been In The Navy Eleven Years

Mrs. C. A. Holverstott, of Fairview, last week received a letter from her son, Curtis H., in which he said that he is now a motor machinist mate, first class. He has been in the Navy since March, 1934, and was at Pearl Harbor at the time of the Jap attack which started the war. He was transferred to the base at Oceanside, Calif., in June last year, and on July 16, 1943, started an intensive six weeks training period there. When he completes that course he is to be assigned to the Navy's Attack Transport service.

Thos. J. Owen, SI/e, Aboard The Colorado At Okinawa

Thomas J. Owen, seaman, first class, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Owen, of Coquille, fought aboard the U. S. S. Colorado for 69 days and nights at Okinawa.

The Colorado expended there more ammunition in support of ground troops than in any of the previous occupation support and bombardment operations in which she participated. She took up her station off the beaches seven days before the invasion to help in the softening-up bombardment, and then for 60 days she continued her relentless pounding of enemy positions. She helped beat off numerous air attacks launched against units of the Fleet operating in the area.

Marvin Davidson In Training As AAF Aviation Engineer

Geiger Field, Washington, Pvt. K. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Davidson, of Coquille, has begun training as an Aviation Engineer of the Air Forces at Geiger Field, Spokane, Washington, according to word received today from the commanding officer at that base.

Upon completion of his training, the new Aviation soldier will be assigned to an Aviation Engineer unit. These units are an integral part of the Army Air Forces and have as their mission the performance of all engineer work needed by the Air Forces in all theatres of operations.

Corporal W. W. Payton Home On A 45-Day Furlough

Cpl. W. W. Payton, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Payton of McKinley St., arrived home last Friday, having come from Okinawa on a 45-day furlough, after spending 3 1/2 years in the South Pacific. This is Bill's first trip home since he went in the army.

James Hanna Here For His 30-Day Furlough

Pvt. James Hanna, brother of Chuck and son of Mrs. Hazel Hanna, principal at the Washington School, is spending a furlough here and in Portland with his grandparents. Pvt. Hanna served for ten months in the Germany-France-Belgium area with the 104th "Timberwolf" division of the First Army. He plans to leave Sunday, August 8, to report at Fort Lewis, at the termination of his thirty-day furlough.

Wendell Goodwin Returned To Base After Leave At Home

Wendell L. Goodwin, A.M.M.2/c, left last week for the Naval Air Station at Seattle, Wash., after a 30-day leave spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodwin and other relatives. This was his first leave in 31 months in service, 21 of which he was at a naval air base in the Hawaiian Islands.

Laurence Ryan Married In England On July 19

Word was received last week by cablegram, by Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ryan of the Fairview route, of the marriage of July 19, of their son, Pfc. Laurence Jr. ("Bud"), to Joyce Morgan, of Glamorgan, Pyle South Wales, in the British Isles. The ceremony took place at Andover, England. "Bud" has been overseas two years and participated in the Normandy invasion and was in France, Luxembourg and Germany. He is with the 398th Engineers and attached to the 29th Infantry.

Theodore Ellingsen And Friends Return To Ship At Seattle

Theodore Ellingsen and his friends, Robert Kauffman of Los Angeles and Kent Nail of Arizona, who are all stationed on the same Coast Guard ship, left last Friday to report in Seattle for further duty after enjoying a leave spent at the home of Theodore's mother, Mrs. Pearl Ellingsen. While here the boys enjoyed a week of fishing on the Sixes and a short time spent on Tenmile at Currier's Village.

Three Divorces Granted

Judge King, in circuit court here on Tuesday, granted divorces to the defendants on their cross-complaint in the cases of Gayle A. Bush vs. Zada C. Bush, and Norland Gant vs. Virginia Gant.

He also granted a divorce to Hilda Schlieman separating her from S. A. Schlieman.
