

Personal Mention

Lans Leneve was in Coquille from his Bear creek store Monday morning, looking none the worse for the accident of several weeks ago which has kept him laid up, but he will have to wear the brace on his back for three months yet.

Mrs. Phil Alborn and baby girl have gone to Pendleton, for a three weeks' visit with her parents. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Holdren and baby son, who will visit Mr. Holdren's parents in Idaho. Mrs. Holdren is the daughter of Phil Alborn and her husband is on leave from his duties with the Navy.

Arthur Erickson, Lloyd Claver and Jack Moore took a group of Boy Scouts from Troop No. 14, to Camp Lucky Boy, Sunday. The Ericksons went on to Corvallis, to visit Mrs. Erickson's parents, while Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their daughter, Marion, went to eastern Oregon for a short vacation.

Mrs. Fred Lafferty, art instructor in Coquille Junior High, was in Portland over the week-end with a friend, Mrs. Clegg Howard, who taught here when she was Miss Ethel Roop. Mrs. Howard now lives in Roseburg, where her husband is employed in the new bank. While in Portland on business, the two friends learned that some of the great paintings which were recovered in Germany, were being shown and they attended the art exhibit.

Mrs. Lela Elrod has tendered her resignation as County Health Nurse, to become effective August 15. The State Board of Health has not found anyone to replace her, as yet. Mrs. Elrod has accepted the position of Coquille School Nurse.

Mrs. Evan Alborn spent the week-end in Medford with her mother, brother and family.

Mrs. Lucy Severson, mother of Clifford Blissett, arrived here from Portland recently and is working for Cliff in the No-D-Lay Cleaners. His cousin, Johnny Poston of Tacoma, is also working for him. Frank Norris returned to work Monday, after a week's vacation spent resting and fishing.

Mrs. Ione Billings had as a house guest for the past two and one-half weeks her grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Darling, who lives in Eugene, Oregon. Mrs. Darling made her home in Coquille years ago, her late husband, W. A. Darling, having owned a restaurant and meat market here. Mrs. Darling is now at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Cardwell, here.

Mrs. John Rhule, the former Gloria Getz, and her son, Gary, came over from Sutherlin Sunday to help care for her father, H. C. Getz, who is employed in the assessor's office and had been quite ill. He was feeling better yesterday and was able to be up at home.

Private Harry Smith of this city, who returned recently from the European theatre, has arrived at the Baxter General Hospital in Spokane, Wash.

Robert McCarthy, of the crew of a B-29 on Guam, wrote home last week and told of receiving a letter from Joe Don and Betty Estes, bearing a postscript written by Dick Ray, who was on leave from his sub base in New London, Conn., and was visiting them in Washington, D.C. The four graduated from Coquille High in the class of '43.

Charles Briggs, formerly Southwestern Motors salesman here, but who is now in the real estate business in Roseburg was a Coquille visitor last Thursday, coming over to clean up on some business. Charley was the one who negotiated the sale of the Cal Ray ranch out in Fairview valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. Jennie Williams drove down to the C. J. Fuhrman ranch on Sixes river Saturday evening. Mr. Lamb returned Sunday evening but the ladies remained for a longer visit with Mrs. Fuhrman.

R. T. (Dick) Harville, who formerly lived here and was here last 19 years ago, accompanied by Mrs. Harville and their two daughters, was calling on old friends here last weekend. Dick has been with the Signal Oil Co. for 14 years, the last two of them stationed in Seattle. He says his brother, Joe, who lived on a ranch near here many years ago, now makes his home at Los Altos, Calif.

Mrs. E. W. Lorenz returned Tuesday from Portland, where she had been the past week or two with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wimer, who had been visiting the old-home town for the past three weeks, left this morning for Eugene where they reside.

Mrs. Rose Knight was accompanied by her granddaughter when she left on the bus Tuesday morning to see her daughter who is ill in Santa Rosa, California.

Mrs. A. F. Willson was hostess to the Helping Hand division of the Church of Christ Mission Circle on Thursday, August 2, at her farm home on the McKinley route. Guests enjoyed very generous helpings of home-made ice cream, served with cookies and punch.
