

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman returned on Saturday from a two weeks' vacation. One week was spent at Lake Chelan with Mrs. Marjorie Bittner and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lewis and family of Wenatchee. Both Mrs. Bittner and Mrs. Lewis are daughters of the Harrimans. During the second week they visited friends and relatives at Tacoma and Sunny-side, Washington. The Harrimans were accompanied home from Portland by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nona Hyde and small sons, Alvin and Dennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Verrill McCurdy and two children and W. H. Fortier returned Monday from a week's trip up to Victoria in Canada.

Sgt. Ben Payne, of the 551st Parachute Infantry Battalion, returned home last Tuesday from Fort Lewis, Washington. He has received an honorable discharge through the point system, after three and a half years service in the Armed Forces, two of which were spent overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Britton surprised his mother, Amy Britton, with a visit Sunday morning from their farm home on the North Bank road. The younger Mrs. Britton is recovering rapidly after several weeks of very serious illness at Belle Knife Hospital.

Glenn Hutton returned from Eugene Wednesday of last week, following a treatment with penicillin administered after consultation with a specialist. His father accompanied him and remained there with a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kester, of the Igloo Market, enjoyed a business trip to Eugene and other points over the week-end. While away they visited their children and grandchildren in that vicinity.

Mrs. Harold Zeigler, of Portland, arrived Sunday for a vacation and is the house guest of Mrs. E. D. McCune. She spent the week-end at Bandon. Mrs. Zeigler is still with the O.P.A. office in Portland.

Mrs. Rose Wickam spent the week-end in Reedsport with her sister, Mrs. Linden Banster.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNelly were in Coquille during the week. They are residing in Eugene at present, where Mr. McNelly is doing observation work in the canneries in that district. They will be located in Grants Pass after the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kern and Frances Ann spent the week-end in Eugene with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alder, and their new granddaughter. They also visited Mr. Kern's brother, Melvin Kern, and family.

Mrs. Bertha Davis spent Sunday at the home of her son, Paul Davis, at Gravelord. She also enjoyed a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Harry Gamble, and family of Bandon.

Rev. and Mrs. Gene Robinson and their two sons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Liston Parrish Sunday evening. Mr. Robinson, who is pastor of the Turner Christian Church, brought the Sunday evening message at the Christian Church.

Mrs. George Loveland visited the past week-end with Mr. Loveland, who met her in Redding, California. Mrs. Loveland is leaving Saturday to rejoin her husband in Berkeley, where they will make their home, he being employed by Landendorf Bakeries in that city.

Mrs. A. B. Collier, of Roseburg, is the guest of Mrs. U. E. McClary this week.

Mrs. Viola Hayse, sister of Clifford Bissett, has come here from Portland to make her home, and is employed in the No-D-Lay Cleaners establishment.

The first fall meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., will be held Thursday evening, Sept. 13. There will be a short program and refreshments.

Anabelle Sherer will arrive here from Vancouver Friday, to move her things to Florida. Her husband, Lt. (j. g.) Sherer, will be stationed there with the Naval Air Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hansen, of San Francisco, came to Coquille on their annual vacation last Thursday. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Oerding Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen returned home Wednesday but expect to come to Coquille in the near future and build a new home on the property which they own near Coquille.

Harriet Tozier is scattering sunshine about Coquille this week. She and her father, M. C. (Jack) Tozier, arrived from Etna, California, Wednesday for a visit of two weeks before Harriet again enrolls at the University of Oregon, where she is in her Junior year. The excitement occasioned by the end-of-the-war announcement found Harriet in San Francisco, where she vacationed for a month this summer.

Mrs. C. M. Gray left Tuesday noon for southern California, where she will visit her son, Claire, who is stationed at San Diego and also her sister in Los Angeles. She expects to be gone about two weeks.

The S. M. Noslers Enjoying Visit From Daughter And Husband

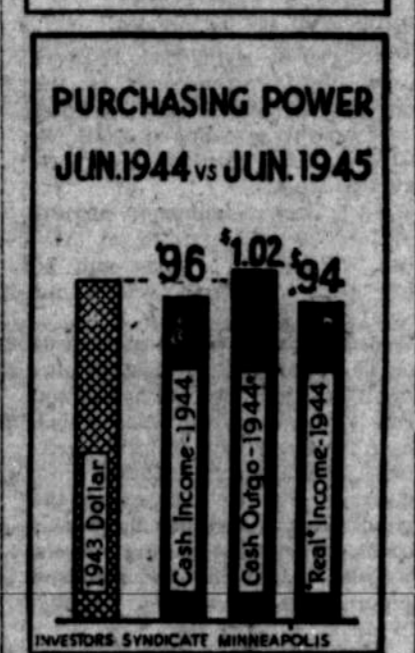

Mrs. Earl Carroll, the former Mary Lou Nosler, arrived home for a three weeks visit last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Nosler meeting her in Portland. She flew from Washington, D. C., to Portland, with a four-hour stop in Chicago.

Her husband, Tech. Sgt. Carroll, could not come with her as he had to go by way of Texas, but he arrived here Sunday night.

He has a 15-day furlough, with five days traveling time each way and he and Mrs. Carroll expect to leave on Sept. 22 to return to his station at New Bern, North Carolina.

American 'Real Income' In June Off Six Cents On $1 From Year Ago

THE above chart, showing how the average American fared in national income changes in the last twelve months, is based on the monthly consumer study of Investors Syndicate of Minneapolis. The American public in June had a "real income" of 94 cents, or three cents on the dollar less than in June, 1944. This "real income" is not a subtraction of cash income and expenditures but an average relative of these figures designed to show how living costs affect adjusted income dollars. Cash income of the American public in June was 96 cents for every $1 a year earlier. The following changes per dollar were: wages off eleven cents, salaries off eight cents on the $1.00; investment income at $1.18 was up eighteen cents and other income unchanged. Rents in June were unchanged compared with a year ago. Food was up three cents, clothing was up three cents and miscellaneous items were up one cent.

Mrs. Paul Simpson Enjoys Visit From Her Brother

Capt. Dien L. Byington, brother of Mrs. Paul Simpson of this city and who is with the Marine Corps, was here at the Simpson home for three days last week. On Wednesday he and Mrs. Simpson and her three sons left to visit their parents at Philomath, Ore. She and the boys returned home Saturday.

Capt. Byington had just returned from sixteen months in the South Pacific where he was on air patrol duty and is to report, when his leave is over, to the Cherry Hill, North Carolina, Marine base.

Mrs. Julius Ruble And Laura Emily Back Home

Julius Ruble moved his family to their old home at 161 East Second street last week-end so that Laura Emily might attend Coquille High. The Rubles have spent the summer at Idleld Park, Oregon, where Mr. Ruble is superintendent of Douglas County Lumber Company.

Mrs. James Hersey, niece of Mrs. Ruble, and her children, Harry and Fae, have been visiting for the last three weeks with the Rubles but returned to Portland Tuesday of this week.

B. P. W. Club To Back Christmas Seal Sale

The first fall meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club was held Tuesday night, Sept. 4, in the Parish House with the president, Florence Barton, in the chair. It was a strictly business meeting and a short one. The club voted to take charge of the distribution of Christmas Seals for Coquille and vicinity.

Sixteen club members are planning to attend the district meeting at Agate Beach above Newport on Sept. 8 and 9.

Mabel Hugh was in charge of the program during which several members were called upon to tell how they came to get started on their particular career.

The next meeting will be open house and reception for new business women in Coquille.
