

People Are Nice

Such a delightful, friendly letter found its way to me this week! I have decided to share it with you because you will be sure to enjoy it, too. The writer kindly gave her permission.

"Yes, people ARE nice. A surprise birthday party was being planned for a sweet neighbor of ours for Thursday evening, the thirtieth. Everything seemed to be ready. We even had the 'fixin's' laid out; so our part of the refreshments could be done Thursday morning, early Wednesday evening, while we were enjoying a visit with some friends, our little Jane stopped in (on her way somewhere; so I thought) to keep us home, as I found out later. Soon the neighbors came trooping in until our living-dinner room was full, and some had to get chairs from home. It was a complete surprise to us, but how we enjoy both surprises and surprisers. They brought refreshments, and the women, as usual, took charge; later serving a delicious lunch of cakes, salad, coffee and punch.

"It's grand for friends to get together and really become acquainted, isn't it? This is a grand section of Coquille. Our friend who was to have been surprised the next evening was among those who surprised us; but she was surprised, too, when she received so many lovely birthday gifts. I know we were, when our friends presented us with a beautiful coffee table and a lovely fuschia. Words couldn't express our thanks. The gifts are so nice and will always be enjoyed; but more, the friendly spirit which prompted the giving. May we be worthy.

"You see, Pat, this happened to be our forty-fifth wedding anniversary. Our children were unable to be with us; so our neighbors were our family. Only one change would I have made; had I known. You see, Pat, I would have had both my house and myself shining (perhaps.) Yes Pat, people are very nice. I always enjoy your articles and thought you would like to meet my neighbors, too.

Yours, Mrs. Walter Laird
Wasn't that enjoyable? I was pleased beyond measure that someone had a desire to share her happiness, and chose me to write about it.

It has occurred to me that it would be interesting if you would write to me your impressions of the County Fair. Tell me the things you especially enjoyed and the things that weren't so pleasing. The folks who devote their time and labor to enable you to have a Fair of which to be proud, can determine the degree of success their efforts have brought, only by noting your reactions. Write me your opinion and I will pass it on—withholding your name, if you wish.
As Ever Pat.

Birthday Party For David Mattoon September 5

The table was beautiful in pink and green when David, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mattoon, entertained a number of young friends with a party in his home on the occasion of his third birthday Wednesday, September 5. There were prizes, cake and ice cream for Artie and Johnny Wood, Mary Linn Anderson, Susan Laird, Bobby Jean and Butchie Harris, Judy Taylor, Cathleen McCarthy, Jesse Wood, Richard and Billy Walker, Janice and Donna Schroeder, Donny Taylor, and the host, David Mattoon.

A special guest at the party was David's daddy, F1/c Ray Mattoon, who arrived September 1, for a twelve-day leave before reporting to Newport Beach, California, where his ship is undergoing repairs.

A gay evening was shared by acquaintances of the recently-married Pat McKeowns when a group of ladies were co-hostesses at a seven-thirty dessert supper in the Coquille Hotel dining hall Wednesday, September 5. About forty-five guests were bidden to the dessert and miscellaneous shower which followed.

Women from out-of-town who enjoyed the evening included Mrs. McKeown's grandmother, Mrs. Elzner of Norway, Mrs. Harold Zeigler of Portland, and two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Herman Detlefsen and Mrs. Ernest Clausen of Broadbent.
