

Gideons Organize County Camp

The Gideon society, which recently organized a Coos county camp, with 32 members signed from all over the county, with headquarters at Coos Bay, will present Bibles to all schools and libraries in the county.

The next regular meeting will be held January 27 in Coos Bay at the Methodist church. Don Farr of Coquille is a member.

Tallant Greenoughs Visit In Ketchikan

In a letter received recently from Lt. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough at Ketchikan, Alaska, they tell of meeting Bill Baker, formerly of the Times staff in Marshfield. Mr. Baker now owns the paper at that place and he took them on a tour of the surrounding country.

Lt. and Mrs. Greenough expect to leave Prince Rupert where he has been stationed for the past year, some time early in December, for the states.

"First Yank Into Tokyo" At Liberty Friday, Sat., Sun.

Adventure and sacrifice are twin themes of the unique melodrama, "First Yank Into Tokyo," dealing with a daring American officer who makes his way into the enemy capital on a mission of vital importance. Tom Neal has the title role, as an Air Corps pilot whose knowledge of the Japanese language, qualifies him for the assignment. Facial surgery gives him the outward appearance of a son of Nippon.

The Korean secret service smuggles him into Tokyo with the identity of a Jap sergeant on furlough. There he sets about obtaining data about an atomic bomb from an American ordnance expert in a Jap prison camp.

Handicapped by two discoveries—that the girl he loves and though dead is also a prisoner and that the Jap colonel in charge was his roommate at college—the young officer endeavors to get the girl and the ordnance man aboard a submarine which is to bring him back. How he gives his own life to accomplish this forms the exciting climax of the unusual film.

Barbara Hale, Marc Cramer, Richard Loo and Keye Luke are among the other featured players in the RKO Radio picture, which was produced by J. Robert Bren under the supervision of Jack Gross. Gordon Douglas directed.

"Code of the Prairie," starring Smiley Burnette, is the second feature on the program.

School Election Slated

An election will be held for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of school districts No. 91 in Charleston and No. 79, South Slough, on December 21.

Charleston is a three-teacher school district, while the few remaining pupils from South Slough and Beachview are transported to the Charleston school.

When Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holverstott sold their farm in Sumner and came to Coquille on December 6, 1925, they little dreamed that on December 6, 1945, twenty years later, they would still be located here, which is the case. The Holverstotts declare that they became so fond of this valley that they could never leave. Both Mr. and Mrs. Holverstott were reared at Fairview and lived there until their marriage. W. O. Matthews, father of Mrs. Holverstott, was one of the earliest settlers in this district and is still living at Fairview.

Mrs. Wade Rice has been ill at home, friends report.

Churches to Observe Annual 'Bible Sunday'

About two years ago an American soldier wrote his mother in Philadelphia, "I am writing to ask you to read with me a chapter from the New Testament each day . . . and I will feel that somehow we are united . . . and if I come back, the church and the Bible will mean more than ever in our lives."

When the American Bible Society reported this incident, the idea spread like wild fire. When it was laid before the Chaplains, "Nation-wide Bible Reading" for 1944 was born. It consisted of reading 33 chapters, chosen by a poll of pastors, and chaplains, one chapter each day between Thanksgiving and Christmas, by the men at war, and their people at home. The Bible Society printed 14,000,000 of the booklets listing these suggested readings. This Sunday all Protestant churches will observe the annual "Bible Sunday."

Free booklets can be had where the large posters are displayed in the store windows of the local merchants.

Townsend Club Meets

The ladies auxiliary of Townsend Club No. 2 met with Mary Keck on November 29. The president called the meeting to order, minutes were read by the secretary, and a report was given by the treasurer. Plans were made for a food and fancy work sale to be held on December 15, at McClary's appliance store in the Nosler building.

The next meeting will be with Florence DeNoma on December 13, at which time a bridal shower will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cooper have returned from a trip to Portland where they bought stock for their florist shop and visited relatives.

The baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Griffin at Mast hospital in Myrtle Point on November 29, has been named Robert Dale.

A bird's cheery carolling has dispelled the darkest frown that ever distorted the face of man. The value of a cheery "Good Morning," the effect of friendly interest, and the charming potency of a friendly smile can never be overestimated.

Those who adopt high standards of practice and then conscientiously live up to them secure the respectful goodwill of a community.
