

Missionary Society Holds Christmas Party Thursday

Thursday afternoon, Dec. 20th, the church parlors of the Pioneer Methodist Church were beautifully decorated for the regular meeting and Christmas party of the Missionary society. Mrs. Elsie Carlson led the group in singing Christmas carols and then sang three lovely solos: "Beautiful Saviour," "Now sing we, now we rejoice," and "Angels we have heard on high." She was accompanied by Mrs. Birdie Skeels. Mrs. Louis Fugelson led the devotions. Mrs. W. P. Laws presented the out-going president, Mrs. Helen Peterson, with a gift from the society. Installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. James Richmond.

Gifts were brought for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The hostesses, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. G. E. Stark and Mrs. Stevens, served refreshments in keeping with the holiday season on trays decorated with candles and fir bough corsages. Present were Mesdames W. P. Laws, James Richmond, Birdie Skeels, Lloyd Odd, C. C. McCurdy, Louis Fugelson, Henry Ellis, James Leonard, Bertha Watson, S. Leatherman, L. R. Klingbell, Carl Morrison, Bessie Howe, R. Latimer Elsie Carlson, Leland Peterson, A. Christensen and the hostesses.

Turkey Men Warned

Oregon turkey growers may be heading for marketing trouble in 1946 if they hold over as many breeding hens as is now indicated, says Noel L. Bennion, extension poultryman at Oregon State college. In the face of a national call for a ten per cent reduction in number of turkeys raised next year, Oregon growers appear to be holding over 20 per cent more breeder hens than last year.

Sgt. Mark Seeley was a Coquille visitor this week from his base in New Orleans, La. He is accompanied by his wife.

Past Matrons And Patrons Club Hold Christmas Party

The Past Matrons and Patrons of Reulach Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., held their annual Christmas party and get-together Thursday evening, starting with a six-thirty o'clock potluck dinner in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple. Husbands and wives of Matrons and Patrons were guests. Two long tables were centered with red streamers flanked by holly and silvered star candle-holders, with white tapers. A large decorated Christmas tree formed a fitting background for the tables loaded with tempting food. Following dinner, music boxes belonging to Mrs. Leona Bryant, were played. Mrs. Bryant then delighted the group with solos, "Brahm's Lullaby," "Prayer Perfect" and "White Christmas." She was accompanied by Mrs. Lola Milne. The group joined in singing "White Christmas" and other songs.

A contest conducted by Ray Jeub, with two teams of contestants, caused the contenders to sharpen their wits for the right answers. A card board ball game proved exciting and a thrilling finale.

Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Folsom, Hal Pierce, Ray Jeub, O. C. Sanford, Ed Lorenz, Henry Lorenz, J. E. Norton, W. E. Bosserman, C. A. Rietman, E. A. Walker, Burton Dunn, J. D. Jarvis, R. ### How to have a happy New Year's eve!

Almost everyone likes hamburgers and winners—with all the fixings—at any time of day or night. Why not capitalize on this fact and have them either for a New Year's eve wash party, or else invite friends in New Year's afternoon to listen to the football game or just visit. No matter what the time would be, this menu will serve as a guide. Everything can be prepared hours in advance, with the exception of the cooking of the hamburgers and hot dogs. The main thing is to have plenty!

Hamburgers and/or Wieners on Buns
Big Bowl Potato Salad
Bowl of Hard-cooked Eggs in Shells
Potato Chips
Sliced Dry Chicken in Vinegar
Green Onions
Pickled Relish
Mustard
Chili Sauce
Lots of Coffee

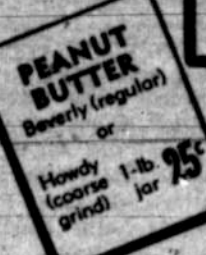

My friend, who specializes in hamburger parties for New Year's day, puts the seasoned meat out to about one-half inch in thickness on sheets of waxed paper. Then she cuts uniform circles with a number 2½ can that has had both ends removed. She then arranges these in layers on a tray with waxed paper between and keeps them in the refrigerator until just before time to cook.

For large quantity cooking, she places the hamburgers on an aluminum tray or a drip pan and cooks two layers at a time in a very hot oven, 500° F., and she drops the wieners in a pot of boiling water that is on the stove. Meanwhile, right in the kitchen — on the drainboard or on the kitchen table — she spreads checked cloths and puts all the fixings. Paper plates, coffee cups and forks are all that will be needed in the way of dishes, except for the serving silver. Each person makes his own sandwich to suit his own taste. Sometimes there are bowls of slicing red apples and cinnamon popcorn for dessert.

Two BIG Differences

YOU often hear people say that making funeral arrangements in advance of necessity is like making a will, or purchasing a cemetery lot.

Well, there IS a lot of similarity, because they're all sensible things to do; things which anticipate an inevitable need.

There are two BIG differences, however: when you have a will drawn, it costs money; when you seek our counsel, it costs you nothing. When you buy a cemetery lot, you pay for it when you pre-arrange funeral services, you pay nothing.

Why, then, don't you phone for an appointment today?
