Miss Lorraine Norris Becomes
Bride Of Elmer W. Goodwin Sunday

On Sunday, Feb. 3, at 1:30 p. m., Miss Lorraine Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris of Fairview became the bride of S. 1/c Elmer W. Goodwin of the U.S.S. St. Paul. They were married at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Goodwin on West Fourth street in Coquille, with the Rev. Bennie Howe officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a wool dressmaker's suit of aqua, with black accessories. Her corsage was made of gardenias.

Wendell Goodwin, brother of the groom, and his bride, the former Thelma Bales, attended the couple.

Following the ceremony, which was attended by close relatives and friends of the bridal pair, a reception was held at the Goodwin home, after which the young couple left for Eugene on a short wedding trip.

After the groom receives his discharge from the navy in March, they will make their home in Coquille.

'Pie-Face' stands in the Breadline

Lorna first met "Pie-Face" when his folks bought the Watson Farm.

Before moving to the Northwest his dad was a North Dakota "hard wheat" farmer—then later, he worked a season or two of fallow, seeding and harvest near Walla Walla. Small wonder that in chem class John— for that's his real name—talked so often about wheat—echoing his father, "Bread is best where bread begins."

Lorna has just turned out her first full batch of weekly farm-home baking, and "Pie-Face" has lined up for a sample.

You can tell by his expression that Lorna has won highest honors. She knew she would—for Lorna is one of the thousands of "flour-wise" farm girls of the Pacific Northwest who has learned from Mother's experience the dependability of enriched Fisher's Blend Flour.
