

B.P.W. Entertain High School Seniors At Valentine Party Monday Evening

By Wilma Drake

The senior girls of the Coquille high school were entertained at the Guild Hall on Monday evening, February 18, 1946, by the Business and Professional Women's club of Coquille. Several of the senior girls were unable to attend because of illness but those present had a wonderful time.

The theme was that of Valentine's Day and the decorations were attractive. When the girls arrived they were presented with a corsage of a camellia on a white paper heart. Later each BPW club member was given a heart on which there was a jingle rhyming with a senior girl's name. By this method each senior girl was a valentine to one of the club members.

The evening was spent in eating, singing, playing cards, and each senior girl was asked to tell what she was planning to do after her graduation.

At the close of the evening two prizes were given to the girl receiving the lowest score and the girl receiving the highest score in the game of hearts. These two prizes were won by Beatrice Taylor low score; and Bernice Haga, high score. There were also three drawings for door prizes which were won by Phyllis Brady, Dorothy Poulignot, and Betty Gibbs.

New Secretary Now At Oerding Office

New private secretary to George Oerding is Mrs. Patrick Murphy who arrived in Coquille last October following her discharge from the WAC's after 26 months of overseas service.

Mrs. Murphy was Wilda Mae Van Meter before her marriage, which took place in Italy, and she had occupied a similar position in Oerding's office for four years previous to entering the WAC's in which she was top secret secretary to Colonel Miller. Her overseas service included 11 months in Africa, five months in Italy and 11 months in France.

Patrick Murphy was reared in New York and lived there before entering the service, but found he enjoyed a visit to Coquille so much he has accepted employment here where they will make their home.

Mrs. Lorraine Gosline entertained 12 youngsters with a Valentine party in observance of the seventh birthday of her daughter, Sharon Jean, on February 9. The birthday cake was served with ice cream molded in heart-shape servings to Carol Jean Adamson, Dicky Thrift, Judy Thrift, Karen Henninger, Phyllis Ann Johnson Lois McCuskey Jean Ray, Billy Ray, Karla Schroeder, Joan Geiss, David Geiss and John Dimmick.

Annual Progressing

Right now at school everyone is pretty well rushed for time having their pictures taken, making pictures, and gathering all the data for the preparation of the new high school Laurel for 1945-1946.

Last week Mr. Throckmorton of the Coquille Studio finished taking the junior and senior single pictures and this week he will begin taking the sophomore and freshman class pictures, and also pictures of the different clubs and organizations of the school.

Shirley Slater, editor of the Laurel is looking forward to a bigger and better Laurel this year and everyone on the staff is cooperating very well.

The Helping Hand organization of the Christian church met with Mrs. Archie Hatcher Thursday, February 7. The women had the Dorcas group at their guests. About 15 were present.

Mrs. Cella Winstanley from Eureka, California, is visiting her niece, Mrs. R. P. Stuller, this week.

Dramatics Club Names Officers For Year

By Wilma Drake

Dramatics club, one of the newest organizations in the high school, is coming along nicely under the supervision of Miss Phyllis Hanse.

This organization is composed of nearly twenty-five members and meets every Monday night after school. At the present time there are four one-act plays being practiced among the group.

These one-act plays will be put on, at first, for the benefit of the other members of the dramatics club and may later be given before the student body of the high school.

The officers of this club are Wilma Drake, president; Pat Yarbrough, vice-president; Anne Arnett, secretary; and Marianne Rackleff, treasurer. The other club members are Shirley Slater, Sally Gable, Phyllis Brady, Roberta Mason, Preston Wil-

Bonita Miller, president; Lois Hansen, vice-president; Waunda Kintzley, secretary; Maxine Wilson, treasurer; Mary Anne Walker, program chairman; Beverly Johnson, social service; Phyllis Brady, point chairman; Marion Gregory, assistant point chairman; Joyce Taylor, freshman representative; Carol Gray, sophomore representative; Versie Willis, junior representative; Jerry Oerding, senior representative; and Joanne Mintonye and Judy Slack, song leaders.

The retiring officers are Shirley Slater, president; Jerry Oerding, vice president; Eulia McCracken, secretary; Bernice Haga, treasurer; Dorothy Howe, social service; Phyllis Brady, assistant point chairman; Marion Moore, program chairman; Carol Gray and Leatha Trout, song leaders; Patty McKeivy, junior representative; Lois Hansen sophomore representative; and Helen Hickam, freshman representative.

Portland Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Tillman and son, Donald, of Portland were Coquille visitors for several days. They formerly lived in Coquille and were here in connection with the sale of the Tillman Apts. They left for a trip south Sunday.

Girls Scouts Entertain Mothers At Ceremony

Girl Scout Troop 1, entertained their mothers with an investiture ceremony and tea held at the home of Mrs. Robert Plieth Friday, February 15, at 7:30 p. m.

The program opened with an explanation of the Scout promise by Nancy Godard. The color ceremony was used with Loleta Robison, Robin Griffin, and La Verne Morgan being taken into the troop and each receiving her pin.

Barbara Danielson had charge of the program and she presented Nancy Godard who sang, readings by Colleen Chowning, Adrienne Eubanks and Donna Reed. There was also a song by Barbara Danielson and a duet by Mary Ann Roberts and Betty St. Clair. Captain Eubanks gave a very interesting talk on the conditions and people in the Philippine and Okinawa Islands.

The following guests were served: Captain and Mrs. Eubanks Mrs. Chormicle, Mrs. McNeel, Mrs. Belcher, Mrs. Waterman, Mrs. Keeney, Mrs. Godard, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. St. Clair, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Crowning.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Bird's-Eye View of America

A fellow took an aerial photograph of our town, and it makes the place look like Utopia.

Folks argued that the new firehouse would never look well beside the old Town Hall. But they harmonize perfectly from the air. One side of the railroad tracks looks as good as the other. All the different landmarks blend in nicely with surroundings.

From where I sit, there's a lesson in that photograph. A community's made up of different elements—people as well as landmarks. Some vote one way, some another; some enjoy a glass of beer and others don't. You might think there was a lot of reason for friction.

But it's all in your point of view. Get up high enough—see the community as a whole—and those little discords blend together into what we call America—a free, harmonious land. The differences only look big to people who see them from too close!

How to Use Meat to Make Breakfasts Hearty
Cold days call for hearty breakfasts, and one of the best ways I've found to make a breakfast substantial is to include some meat in the menu. Here are some favorite winter breakfasts that will also make a special hit for Sunday brunch.

COLD MORNING SPECIAL
Tomato Juice with Lemon Wedge
Hot Apple Pancakes Rolled Around Sausage Links
Warm Syrup Coffee or Cocoa

APPLE PANCAKES—To 2 cups of prepared pancake flour, add 2 eggs and 1 1/4 cups milk beaten together. Blend well. Stir in 1 cup finely chopped apples and 2 tablespoons melted shortening. Drop by spoonfuls onto greased griddle or frying pan. Bake until bubbles break; turn and bake until golden brown. Wrap each pancake around a well-cooked sausage link. Serve hot with warmed syrup. Serves 6.

START THE DAY RIGHT!
Baked Winter Pears
Broiled Lamb Chops and Hashed Brown Potatoes
Toasted English Muffin
Coffee or Milk

HASHED BROWN POTATOES—Melt 3 tablespoons shortening in a heavy frying pan; add 3 cups chopped or finely cut cooked potatoes, heating them toward the center and away from the edges of the pan; season to taste. Cover with a lid or heavy plate; press down so that cover is right on top of the potatoes. Place a box of salt or rock on top to give pressure. Cook slowly and without turning for 15 to 20 minutes, or until crusty brown. Turn out onto a warm plate. Cut into 4 or 6 pie-shaped wedges to serve.
