Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Johnson Given Surprise On Occasion of Their 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Johnson of Knowlton Heights received a real suprise last Friday evening when a group of friends with pots and pans trouped in on them. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary which they observed Thursday night with a family dinner at home. Their sons, Carl and Burton, and daughter-in-law, Helen, were the instigators of the affair and really put one over on the "old" folks.

After the surprise, the group settled down to various games and wound up with "Hearts." At a late hour, a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake with silver trim, ice cream, sandwiches and coffee were served. The hosts were assisted by Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Elmer Davis. Besides being showered with rice, the honored couple received a lovely potted azalea interspersed with dimes and silver dollars wrapped in cellaphane.

Present for the occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Taylor, E. D. McCune, W. E. Bosserman, L. A. Lundquist, Cecil Hugh, Stanley Fitzgerald, Fred Kunz, Elmer Davis, Carl Johnson, the honored couple and Burton Johnson.

In appreciation:
There are no friends, like those friends
Which are ever tried and true
And our friends are those friends,
Like you and you and you.
—Rudy and Peggy Johnson

Loyal Women's Class Hold Noon Luncheon

Last Thursday, the Loyal Women's class of the Church of Christ met for a noon luncheon in the church dining hall. This was a birthday party for the class which is observed every three months by the ladies. The long tables were attractively decorated with daffodils. Following the luncheon, a short business meeting was held.

Mrs. Florence Hallock sang "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," this being in keeping with the topic of the meeting. Mrs. S. Hardenbrook is president of the class and Mrs. Hallock, the teacher. From the birthday box, the following drew gifts: Mrs. Carrie Benham, Mrs. E. Wolgamott, Mrs. Harold McCue and Mrs. Zula Hooton. NonAffiliated Members Entertain Thursday All Members of Beulah Chapter No. 6, O.E.S.

The Non Affiliated members had charge of the program and refreshments at the meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., held in the Masonic Hall last Thursday evening. The president of the Social club, Mrs. Mabel Kunz, reported over $100.00 netted from the cooked food sale held Saturday, March 9th. Part of this will be sent to the Worthy Grand Matron to assist in purchusing a farm tractor for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home.

The chapter voted to give $35.00 to the Red Cross.

At the next meeting, Thursday, March 28th, Beulah Chapter, No. 6, will be hosts to Doric Chapter, No. 53, of Coos Bay and Coos Chapter, No. 99 of North Bend, when the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Hazel Graham, will make her official visit.

Following the meeting, the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Roy Boober, presented Mrs. Otto Zentner of Occidental Chapter, No. 45, who had charge of the program.

The first number was by the High school double sextette which sang most pleasingly that familiar song, "Rose Marie." They were accompanied by Mrs. Thora Watson. Miss Roberta Mason delighted her listeners with that humorous reading, "The Waltz." Miss Inez Rover, in her usual charming manner, played two lovely piano solos: "Whirlwind" and "Lento," the latter by Cyril Scott. The next number was given by one of the non-affiliated members, Mrs. Ada Moore of Elgin Chapter, No. 24, who convulsed the audience with James Whitcomb Riley's "Raggedy Man." A lovely violin solo, "Adoration," was played by Miss Geraldine Oerding. She was accompanied by Miss Leone Ingman. Miss Roberta Mason, with her varied talents sang the lovely solo, "After," accompanied by Mrs. Watson, and last, but decidedly not least, Kenneth Talley sang "Since I First Met Thee," with Mrs. Talley at the piano.

At the close of this lovely and entertaining program, a social time was enjoyed, followed by refreshments served in the banquet hall by Mrs. Harold McCue and her committee. The long table was artisitically decorated with St. Patrick's Day trimmings and centered with a bowl of camellias flanked with green tapers. The refreshments also carried out the motif.

THE SMART FAMILY

The other day John Smart waited for me in the courtroom before going to lunch together. It was a divorce trial. John asked me a pungent question. "Judge," says John while we were having lunch, "have you ever had a milk shake bob up in divorce proceedings?" "No, can't say that I've ever heard of milk shakes or any other soft drink appearing in court—but there's plenty of times that alcoholic beverages have appeared as a cause that leads to broken-up families—and many times to broken-up youngsters . . . who are indeed the innocent victims of parental delinquency."
