'B' Squad Members Get New Awards

This year Coach "Dutch" Meyers has started something new by presenting the high school "B" squad players with humerals to wear on their letterman sweaters. The boys receiving these humerals for their work on the squad this year are Keith Johnson, Dale Courtright, Don Pierce, Bob Geaney, Cliff Billings, Chuck Billings, Neil Haga, Junior Strain, Wilbur Reed, Jim Bellmore, Wayne Timmons, Bud Buckles, Warren Jenkins and Mac Donald. The boys, however, are not allowed to wear a letterman stripe with these humerals. The humeral is marked with the year number in which the boys were on the "B" squad.

This is the boys' first year under "Dutch" Meyers and even though the coach wasn't here all year to train the boys, they did make a fine showing for the amount of practice and training they did have.

From this year on the boys participating on the "B" squad will receive humerals to show for their activity.

Sentinel Classified Ads will sell it.
