

Friendship Night Observed Thursday At Masonic Hall By Beulah Chapter

The Masonic Hall was beautifully decorated with baskets and vases of hawthorne blossoms for the observance of Friendship Night at Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S., last Thursday evening when about 120 members and guests were present.

Elgin Chapter, No. 24, of Myrtle Point and Dr. June Martin, a member of the Educational committee of the General Grand Chapter and Past Grand Matron, were special guests.

About 30 members from Doric Chapter, No. 53, Coos Bay, were present, including the Worthy Matron, Ida Linder, and Mrs. Blanche Bergen, Grand Representative of Saskatchewan. Dr. June Martin was tendered an honorary membership in Beulah Chapter, No. 6, by the W. M. Florabel Boober. It was a complete surprise to her and a most enjoyable one, to which she responded in her usual eloquent manner.

A lovely and impressive Friendship degree was exemplified for the officers of Elgin Chapter by the officers of Beulah Chapter, with the assistance of Mrs. Edna Taylor, who was the Stranger and Seeker in the garden of friendship. With the assistance of her guide, she presented the officers of Elgin Chapter with dainty Cecil Brunner rose corsages. On entering the Chapter room, visitors were presented with a rose corsage.

Following the degree talks were given by Mrs. Blanche Sempert, W. M. of Elgin Chapter; Mrs. Metta Ross, a member of the Jurisprudence committee of the Grand Chapter; Mrs. Lola Kring, grand representative of Idaho; and Elton Schroeder, W. P., all of Myrtle Point; Blanche Bergen and Ida Linder of Coos Bay.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Florence Sanford presented the program which consisted of two delightful piano solos by the accomplished pianist, Miss Aileen Wilson, "Revolutionary Etude" and "Impromptu - Fantasie" Opus 66, both by Chopin, and vocal solos by the eminent singer, Robert Macdonald.

They were "Polly Willis," "La Donna Mobile" from Rigoletto and "Duna." He was accompanied by Mrs. Zettie Hawkins at the piano.

A social hour was enjoyed with refreshments in the banquet hall, served by Mrs. Bert Folsom and her committee. The table was a vision of loveliness, centered with long, decorated trays filled with beautiful roses and other spring flowers.

Mes. Lamb, Williams Entertain Guild

Hostesses at the Episcopal Guild meeting last Wednesday were Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. Jane Williams. Following a busy afternoon of sewing, refreshments were served by the hostesses. Present were Mrs. F. M. Shaw, Mrs. Lloyd Rosa, Mrs. Ida Owen, Mrs. C. T. Selbig, Mrs. E. W. Lorenz, Mrs. Jennie Price, Mrs. W. H. Mansell, Mrs. Charles Stauff, Mrs. Clarence Tuttle and former member, Mrs. James Watson of Seattle, who was visiting here.

Club Entertained

Tuesday night, May 21, Mrs. Ted Foss was host to her bridge club. Mrs. Gould won high score at contract and Mrs. Creager, second. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following: Mesdames R. C. Vaughan, Ralph Cochran, Wm. Barrow, J. E. Axtell, Don Estes, Rodney Creager, L. B. Gould.

Helga Wormdahl Weds Coquille Resident at Monitor

The home of John Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Satrom near Monitor was the scene of a beautiful wedding in May when the former's niece, Helga Wormdahl, daughter of John Wormdahl, and Frank Norris of Coquille were united in marriage.

Rev. Earl Crook of Eugene performed the single-ring ceremony before a group of members of the immediate family. Oscar Satrom sang "Because" preceding the ceremony, accompanied on the piano by Bessie Gregerson, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride was attired in a long white satin lace-trimmed gown with train and high neckline. She wore a fingertip veil with coronet and carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies and maiden hair fern tied with white satin streamers. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Oscar Satrom, was matron of honor. She wore a blueorgette crepe dress and carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons, sweetpeas and gardenias. Another sister, Mrs. A. C. Fincher, served as attendant. She wore a green lace dress and carried a bouquet similar to that of the matron of honor. Oscar Satrom was best man and A. C. Fincher, groom's attendant.

Baskets of spirea, iris, wisteria and azaleas were placed about the rooms to form the setting for the wedding. The ceremony was performed in the same room that the bride's parents were married in, over 40 years ago, and her two sisters were also married there. Following the ceremony a reception was given. The table was covered with a lace cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of pink and white snapdragons and a two-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Elmer Thompson poured, Mrs. A. C. Fincher cut the cake and Mrs. Oscar Satrom assisted with the serving.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Norris selected a powder blue suit with black accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias.

The newlyweds will live in Coquille. Mrs. Norris is a graduate of Woodburn high school, attended the University of Oregon and was recently employed in Portland.

Mr. Norris is associated with the No-D-Lay Cleaners.

Nile Club Hostess To Lodge Prospects

Prospective members for the Nile club were entertained last Wednesday evening by Mrs. T. S. Stevens at the regular get-together of the club. The evening was spent in playing contract rummy and sewing. Mrs. McDonald received the high score prize.

At a late hour, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. Lester Coates and Mrs. Roy Neal of Coos Bay; Mrs. H. G. Ross and Mrs. Perry Roper of Myrtle Point; Mrs. C. T. Selbig and Mrs. E. J. Ruble of Coquille, and guests, Mrs. Ernest Clausen of Broadbent, Mrs. Gus McDonald of Coos River and Mrs. Mabel Kotka of Coos Bay.

Sew-Said Club Holds Housewarming Party

A combined housewarming and birthday celebration was in order Friday evening when the Sew-Said club met at the home of Mrs. Lurene Laird on the Myrtle Point highway.

The birthday celebration was in honor of Mrs. Doris Sayre. Following an evening of sewing, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Members present were Miss Donna Dean Bosserman, Mrs. Dorothy Harris, Mrs. Ann Kamf, Mrs. Doris Sayre, Mrs. Jean Bryan, Mrs. Audrey Mattoon, Mrs. Glenda Moy, Mrs. Markie Sherrill and two guests, Mrs. Georgianna Perrott and Mrs. Marvin Jane Dimmick. The club will meet next with Audrey Mattoon.

McClary's Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary were hosts to their bridge club Saturday evening. Mrs. R. E. Boober won high score and U. E. McClary, second. At a late hour, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Zentner, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober, Mrs. E. D. McCune, Mrs. Jack Edlelsen and the hosts.

Girl Scout Troop 6 Holds Meeting

Girl Scout Troop, No. 6, called their meeting to order Thursday, May 16. After taking care of their regular routine of business, they visited the city jail, where a policeman explained many points of interest, such as the "billy clubs," tear gas and why it is used and fingerprints.

Then the policeman escorted the troop to the fire department where he explained the chemicals used in extinguishing fires.

Meeting was then adjourned. Reporter, Beverly Bechtel.
