

Doings of Local People

The Rev. Robert L. Greene and Harry Johnson conducted a little serenade for J. Arthur Berg on Tuesday in the Hotel Coquille coffee shop, their song being "Happy Birthday."

Mrs. Ernest Watkins was a Coquille visitor Saturday and while in town paid The Sentinel a nice visit. Mrs. Watkins always brings in a bit of the charm of her lovely home in the green valley above Myrtle Point. The Watkins have been doing more work on their farm and home.

Mrs. C. B. Young has taken a job at Bunker Hill and is only in Coquille on Saturdays on which day she always comes in to The Sentinel for a copy of each week's paper.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Briner were back in Coquille last week from Milo, Missouri. While here they completed sale of their home to J. J. Esser. They have purchased a grocery store in Nevada, Mo., and will take over as soon as they return. Mr. Briner reports they like the state of Missouri, and Nevada is a town of 8100 people in the heart of a rich, diversified agricultural area. On their trip west they came via Colorado and encountered quite a bit of snow in the Rocky Mountains.

Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks and daughter, Adrienne, left last week at the close of school for Camp Beale, California, where Capt. Eubanks has been hospitalized for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lev Craven entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stuller at a dinner Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. E. D. McCune and Roger left Thursday for Portland to spend a few days with her sister and family. From there she will go to Seattle to be with her husband, who is visiting his brother and family.

The Past Noble Grands will meet with Mrs. Birdie Skeels Friday evening, June 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Harriman of Portland, formerly of Coquille, were week-end visitors here.

Jim Howe, formerly a sergeant in the U. S. Army air forces, is now home and has gone to work for the Standard Oil company. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Howe and was discharged from Randolph Field, Texas.

Roberta Mason is now employed at the Safeway Store during the summer months.

Dave Kline, Bill Kistner, and George Gant spent last week fishing on the Middle Elk. They are telling of a lot of fine big trout caught in the Curry county stream.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Perrott are in California on a vacation. They left Coquille last Thursday.

Assistant Fire Chief Frank Schram attended the city council meeting, representing the Coquille fire department, Monday evening.

Dean Drago spent the fore part of the week in Eugene. The Drago's formerly lived in Eugene.

Bill Barrow was a Myrtle Point visitor Saturday evening.

John Purkey, Bob Harbison and Brewer Mills spent Monday morning fishing on Laurel lake and came back with a nice catch of trout.

C. Eugene Fields, county sanitarian, returned Saturday from the state convention of the state health department in Portland. He brought his family back and they are visiting in Curry county while awaiting their house in Coquille.

C. Eugene Fields, George Burr and Mayor Orville Wood inspected the city dump and the new work being done on it, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lud Scharfer and the Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Greene and families spent Sunday on a picnic in the myrtlewood park area.

Mr. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough returned from two weeks at the Rogue where they caught their limit of salmon which they had canned there. They plan to spend some time in the Cascade mountain lake region the rest of the month.

Bob Harris says he found a cafe at Sutherlin that serves real rib steaks. Mr. and Mrs. Harris and the Pat McLarrin's stopped there on their way home from golf at Roseburg Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Smith returned home Sunday from the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point, where she had been for ten days following an operation.

Jack Blum, one of the graduates of Coquille high school last week, left Saturday evening for Portland, where he plans to enlist in the navy.

Mrs. Lex Cope and her daughter, Marjorie, were shopping in Coquille last Saturday, coming here from their farm home near Langlois.

Hannah Sandquist will be with the Coos county health department during the month of June.

Harry Johnson, K. P. Lawrence and Alton Grimes attended a lodge meeting in Coos Bay Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hollenbeck are the parents of a daughter, Florence Ariene, who was born June 2nd in Coquille. She weighed eight pounds at birth. Both mother and daughter are doing well.

Elmer Benham is in Portland this week.

George Taylor is in Portland this week conducting business.

Edgar McDaniel of North Bend was a witness on the murder trial this week at the circuit court rooms.

Janice Osterhout is the new secretary in Ernie Smith's insurance office.

The Rev. Robert L. Greene conducted a funeral service at Bandon on Monday of this week. The service was under the auspices of Schroeder Bros.

Miss Donna Lee Lanham of Portland was a recent guest of friends in Coquille. Saturday night, May 25, she was entertained by Mary Anne Walker at the Walker cottage in Bandon. Other guests were Laura Emily Ruble and Joyce Benham.

Mrs. Berniece Moltho is now at home after two weeks in the Belle Kline hospital.

Lewis Barnes of McMinnville has been in Coquille the past week working for Dr. Crawford while Coquille's veterinarian was ill.

Attending the Masonic ceremony at Coos Bay in which Dr. J. D. Rankin and Donald B. Estes received degrees Monday night were W. F. Laws, H. S. Norton, J. A. Moore and William Barrow.

A son, Michael Thompson, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Drake, at Coquille on May 24th. The young lad weighed seven pounds, 14 1/2 ounces.

As the rain causes things to grow, gentleness brings love to life, turns hope into faith, subdues arrogance, brings order out of chaos and understanding to bewildered minds. Gentleness is a subtle power; it is a pervasive influence; it enters freely where bluster is denied.

We strive at all times to give of our time unsparingly, to act with sympathy that is practical, to meet every ethical requirement of our profession.

Schroeder Bros. Mortuaries
COQUILLE 109R Bandon 51

Phil Albern of Southwestern Motors is in Portland this week on a business trip.

Dr. J. D. Rankin took his fishing boat out Sunday for a first run with new steel gear and his newly installed motor. He holds a commercial fishing license and is looking forward to the tuna season off Depoe bay when tuna begin their summer run.

Joyce Munger is now employed in the office at the Sayre Builders' Supplies company on North Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gosline of Los Angeles, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wood, are expected back in Coquille soon. Mr. Gosline has been attending school in the Southern California city.

Released From Navy
Emery Thompson, SF third class, of Rt. 2, Bandon, has been released from active duty with the U. S. navy, it was announced this week by the office of personnel separation in Bremerton, Wn.

NOW AVAILABLE!
EVERSHARD
SCHICK INJECTOR
RAZOR

TRICK
AUTOMATIC
Blade change!

- No blade-handling hazard
- Cleans instantly - just rinse
- Double thick blades last 3 times longer

$1.25
with 20 blades

RACKLEFF PHARMACY
First Street

Entertain At Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Claver were hosts at a dinner party last Wednesday night at Ripper's in North Bend to Mr. and Mrs. Lev Craven and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stuller.

BIRDS-EYE
FROZEN FOODS

Turkey - Chicken

GRAPEFRUIT, PEAS, MIXED VEGETABLES, CORN CHOP SUEY, CHICKEN A LA KING, SPINACH, APRICOTS, CAULIFLOWER, BROCCOLI CUTS, ASPARAGUS, APPLE SAUCE, CREAMED TUNA AND SALMON, OYSTERS

GANT'S GROCERY
305 W. First Phone 4

DON'T FORGET DAD
Father's Day, June 16

... and don't forget just because he's always buying gifts for the rest of the family that he likes a token of affection once in a while himself. Give Dad a break on HIS day this year. Get him an enduring gift he can enjoy for years. And make it MYRTLEWOOD... something for his den. Say a pair of brand new and exclusive myrtlewood and tooled-leather wild life or horse head plaques.

Or one of our beautifully-designed myrtlewood humidors, smoking stands or cigarette boxes.

Look over our extensive display today. You'll find something here for Dad... and all the family, too.

Myrtle Lane Myrtlewood Shop
KoKeel Village Ph. 77-M Coquille, Ore.

Frank and Bill's
Auto Service
Union Service Station Bldg.
2nd and Taylor
FRANK ROBISON BILL EARLS

calexico

... a vibrant, new scent that beckons you south of the border, where life is fired with excitement, where gaiety seeks a romantic partner, where the echoes of lilting laughter make tempting promises.

COLOGNE:
four oz. - $3.50;
six oz. - $5.00

A Product of Windsor House, Ltd.

BARROW DRUG COMPANY
Roxy Building

Sensational VALUES!

All Kinds; extra large, low coffee tables, lamp stands, end tables in pairs or single. Several kinds of wood and finishes. Many have glass tops.

T A B L E S !

See our window display Thursday for price slashes!

Whether for yourself or for a gift, this is too good to miss!

* * * * *

Biegger Furniture Co.
460 W. Front Phone 262