Your Credit Record follows you

When you move into a new neighborhood, or from one city to another, your credit record, like a shadow, follows you.

If you have a good credit record, merchants and professional people who never saw or heard of you before will gladly open a charge account for you or arrange convenient terms for major purchases you want to make on a deferred basis. They know that if you paid your bills promptly in another neighborhood, or another city, you are worthy of their trust.

Your credit record is an open book, not only in your own community — but from coast to coast.

For the record of how you pay your bills... which is on file in the local Credit Bureau... is accessible to the members of more than 1300 Credit Bureaus in the United States and Canada.

A favorable report from a Credit Bureau enables you to buy the things you want and need almost anywhere, any time — on a charge account or deferred payment basis. And regardless of what you want to buy, or where or when you want to buy it, you can be sure of a good credit report only if you pay your bills promptly — on the date they are due. Use your credit — but don't abuse it.
