

Doings of Local People

Several Coos Bay people attended the Christian Science lecture Monday night in the Washington Grade school here, sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Lud Scharfer, new Rotary secretary, is busy getting a new Rotary directory prepared for printing.

Graydon Crews of the Coos Bay Lumber company who has been in the purchasing department will resign soon for a short vacation before he starts his teaching at Myrtle Point union high school. Mrs. Crews and their new daughter returned home last week from the hospital in Coos Bay.

Misses Lucille Kern, Lee Huls and Roberta Francisco, of Eugene, returned home Friday after spending a week at the Clifford Kern beach cottage at Bandon. They are employed at the Eugene Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kester who have sold their Igloo Locker plant here have purchased a home in Eugene and will move there August 26th, Mr. Kester said today. They were in business here for three and a half years.

Plans are being made by a number of people to attend the Labor Day dance here Saturday night, August 31st, in the Coquille Community building.

Manager Lewis Wiltshire of the Coquille branch of the First National bank was a Powers visitor this week, making a house appraisal for a veteran's loan. He reports there is much activity in this line right now.

Some of the Sentinel's favorite people are those women who, when down town shopping, remember to stop in with an item about visitors, parties, and trips to the beach, to the city or to the valley. And here are more and more people realizing that The Sentinel is always glad to have those interesting little items to print as one of our most popular sections of the local news column.

The Teen-Age club will elect officers Friday evening in the Junior auditorium of the Community building, besides having a lot of modern and old-fashioned dancing. Every teenager in town is invited; there is no charge.

Judge L. D. Felsheim was a Salem visitor last week and while there had a conversation with the Governor regarding appointment of a new highway commission member in case one of the present members should resign soon.

Leo Call, apprentice at The Sentinel, arrived back in Coquille Sunday evening after a trip through the Pacific Northwest that took him into Vancouver, B. C. He spent the weekend in Canada and enjoyed it very much.

Glenn Griffith and brother, Charles Griffith, left Saturday evening for Carthage, Mo., called there by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. T. W. Griffith.

Dr. Eleanor Gutman, Coos county public health doctor, has rented a house in Coquille and will be settled soon. She has been visiting various parts of Coos county the past week and is enjoying it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Barton left Monday morning for Amity, Oregon, for a visit of several days with their daughter, Mrs. Dan Van Otten, and family.

Stew Norton will soon take over the duties of purchasing at the Coos Bay Lumber company's Coquille plant.

Mrs. Alice L. Dustin of Cottage Grove attended the Christian Science lecture Monday night at the Washington grade school. She stopped in at The Sentinel office Tuesday and complimented Coquille on its nice city spirit.

A donkey ball game has been slated for this coming week-end, Floyd Chase, Baseball club manager, states.

Visitors at H. A. Bothwell home on Lampa Creek this week are Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Shaneyfelt of Dayton, Ohio. Also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell are Miss Betty Bothwell and Miss Cecilia Carrigan of Los Angeles. They are here after a trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hardenbrook have just returned from a ten days vacation attending a family reunion at Forest Grove of the Lilly family, which is an annual affair. There were 95 grown ups. Mrs. Hardenbrook's name was formerly Lilly. At Seattle where the Hardenbrook family had a reunion there were 32 present. It was a wonderful trip, and saw a lot of Washington, but Oregon has got it all beat and we were glad to get back.

Evan Alborn left for Portland Tuesday afternoon. While in the city he will attempt to arrange for Arthur Kirkham to address the Lions and Rotary clubs of Coquille on the subject of "Save the Myrtlewoods."

Mrs. Burton W. Dunn is still acting as Coos county home demonstration agent pending the selection of a permanent home demonstration agent. Mrs. Dunn was formerly Coos county home demonstration agent and resigned when she was married.

B.P.W. Meet Monday

The regular meeting of the Business & Professional Women's club was held Monday night, August 19, at the home of Georgia Richmond.

After routine matters were taken care of, a social hour followed with those present participating in the singing of songs, accompanied by Esther Brooks at the piano, and in a guessing game led by Hattie Lee Holimon. Prizes in the guessing game were won by Grace Detlefsen, Ocie Knife, Lela Elrod, Bess Maury and Esther Brooks.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Hattie Lee Holimon, Grace Detlefsen, Georgianna Vaughan, Inez Chase, Ida Owen, Ocie Knife, Bess Maury, Mabel Hughes, Marjorie Logsdon, Edna Kern, Esther Brooks, Lela Elrod, Marie Clinton, and the hostess, Georgia Richmond.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in the Parish House Tuesday evening, September 3. All members are urged to attend.

RHEUMATISM and ARTHRITIS

I suffered for years and am so thankful that I am free from pain and able to do my work that I will gladly answer anyone writing me for information. Mrs. Anna Pautz, P. O. Box 825, Vancouver, Wash.
