

Doings of Local People

The annual observance of Natal Day by the Coos county Chapters, O. E. S., will be held Friday, August 30th, at North Bend.

Mrs. Ruth Varney left Friday for her home in Long Beach, Calif., after visiting with friends in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mannellin returned Friday night from a week's vacation spent in visiting friends and relatives in Salem, Portland, Vancouver and Silverton.

Mrs. Lloyd Leatherman returned Saturday from Portland where she had spent two weeks visiting her new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leatherman, July 16.

Velma Gibbs of Riverton is now employed at the office of the Coos Electric Co-operative, according to R. H. Connarn, manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Hode Caughell returned late last week from a week's fishing and outing on the Rogue at Gold Beach. Hode managed to pick up one of the nicest cases of sunburn seen around Coquille this summer, but he states the trip was so enjoyable he even likes his chapped lips.

Mr. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough spent Saturday and Sunday on the Rogue up the river from Gold Beach working on their new cabin.

Salesmen report fishing is quite a bit better on the Rogue this past week. Any number of Portland drummers are putting a rod and line in their cars this summer and sneaking off down to the Rogue when they are supposedly working hard in Coos Bay, North Bend and Coquille.

Marion Train is on vacation this week from his work at Benham's Transfer Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Krantz are now at home to visitors after their recent wedding.

Frank Berg, logging supply store owner of Seattle and Portland, was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnson. Mr. Berg also attended the Active club charter night at the Coquille Valley Country club.

Soren Buus spent some time on the Lower Coquille last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Driskell were Roseburg visitors Sunday driving over and back on the same day. They reported nice weather in the valley and spent an enjoyable Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sickles who are myrtlewood novelty producers, were Coquille visitors Monday. They were in town seeing about the repair of their car which was damaged last Tuesday when a driver smashed head-long into them on the Fairview road.

Several local farmers will attend the Oregon State Fair, starting September 2 at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miles were interested in the fine Charter Night put on by the local Active club Saturday at the Coquille Valley Country club. Mr. Miles is an Active club organizer and was instrumental in starting the local club. Guests were also present from Eugene and Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wood and son are spending the week at the Wood cabin on the Upper Rogue at Agness. Lloyd is taking it easy as he is only a week out of the hospital where he underwent an appendectomy. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wood drove up with them on Sunday.

Fred Bull, scoutmaster of troop 63, was out Saturday looking over the country-side for foxgloves which will be harvested by members of Troop 63. The seeds and leaves of foxglove, under the medical term, digitalis, is a valuable medical herb.

Many interested people heard a talk and saw pictures on the work of the Holy Ghost Fathers in West Africa Thursday night at the Holy Name Catholic church. Father Peterson gave the illustrated talk. He is a member of the Holy Ghost Fathers and was educated in France and Italy, though he is a native of Denmark. He has spent over ten years in Africa working with the missions. The Holy Ghost order works only with negroes.

Bob Smith had another shipment of lambs sent to the San Francisco market this week. A part of the recent load of lambs topping the Pacific Coast market for price taken to San Francisco last week were his. This shipment was made by him exclusively.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gormley moved to Portland Tuesday morning where he has transferred with the Southern Pacific. They were fortunate in finding a house last week on their first house hunting trip to the city. They have been residents of Coquille for over 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ruble and Laura Emily were home this week-end from Idleyeld Park. Laura Emily left Monday for Portland where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hersey, her uncle and aunt, and also with her cousin, James Hersey, and family before school starts.

Claude Mason of the Mason Hardware returned last week from a business trip to Portland during which time he spent his energy in buying needed merchandise for his store. He states that is just as hard to find items as it has ever been, but he was fortunate in being able to secure quite a bit of merchandise.

Al Powrie is building up quite a show place on the Myrtle Point-Coquille highway. He plans on painting his barn gray with a vermilion red roof.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Chormicle of Oscar's Auto Service left Monday morning for Port Orchard, Wash., for a short visit with Mrs. Chormicle's brother. They expect to return the latter part of the week and bring home their children who have spent a very enjoyable summer on their uncle's farm.

Blackberry picking is engaging the interest of many a young fry in the Coquille area this week.

Ernie Perrott came home Sunday with a nice jack salmon and a 28-pound Chinook. He was on the Lower Coquille fishing.

FUEL PROBLEMS

The Solaray Oil Burner is solving the fuel problem for many families. This oil burning unit can be installed in your present range or furnace without disturbing your fire-box.

Saves work for the whole family—especially Father at the wood pile.
