

4-H Team Chosen For State Fair

The livestock judging team from the Greendell 4-H dairy club won first place at the county-wide livestock judging contest, August 24, and will represent Coos county in the judging contest at the State Fair, according to Noel Sommer, assistant county agent. The team consists of Paul Davis, Louise Southmayd, and Alice May Miller. Winning second place and a trip to the Pacific International Livestock Exposition were Bill Springstead, Bob Lanway and Donald Lanway from the Greendell Livestock club.

The teams will be sponsored at the fair by the four co-operative creameries in the county, Coos Bay Mutual, Coos River Farmers Co-op, Arago Co-op Cheese Association and the Coquille Valley Dairy Co-op.

Beef animals belonging to Peterson Bros., Arago; dairy owned by Dal King, Norway; and sheep belonging to Martin G. Arnold, Gaylord, were judged during the tour.

The tour was conducted by R. M. Knox, county agent of Curry county.
