

At McKinley Members Attend All-Day Meeting Held In Coquille

(Correspondence)

Mrs. Milford Mast and Mrs. Frank Howard attended an all-day Home Extension Unit project leaders' meeting in Coquille Thursday, Oct. 17. Subject of the meeting was "Table Setting and Color in the Home." Our next Home Extension meeting will be held at Mrs. Tom Hayman's home Friday, Nov. 1.

Mrs. Nellie Brown was taken to the Belle Kulle hospital Friday morning for medical treatment for heart trouble.

Our regular Jolly Gardeners meeting was held at Mrs. Tom Hayman's home Friday, Oct. 18, at which time a committee of Mrs. Clarence Church, Mrs. Mildred King, Mrs. Frank Howard and Mrs. Tom Hayman was named to take charge of a dance and box social to be held Nov. 9 at the Grange hall. It is sponsored by the club to raise money to help in building the teacherage. Other members attending were Mrs. Milford Mast, Mrs. Dick Walters, a new member, and her two children; Mrs. Reuben Brown, Mrs. Delbert King and son, Mike; Mrs. Lee Mast, hostesses were Mrs. Ben Hudson and daughter, Mrs. Tom Hayman. After the meeting was over a birthday party was held in honor of our club mascot, Gene R. Mast. Refreshments consisted of punch, coffee, pop corn, peanuts and apples. Our next meeting will be held at Mrs. Reuben Brown's home, Nov. 15. Birthdays to be honored are those of Mrs. Frank Haney, Mrs. Ben Hudson and daughter, Mrs. Tom Hayman.

Mrs. Reuben Brown has been suffering with an infected cheek since Friday. Blood poisoning was feared but it seems to be getting better.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cornwall and baby have moved to Marshfield where Mr. Cornwall will be employed in the fishing business. Mr. Cornwall was employed at the Brown Bros. mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard have moved to Fairview where Mr. and Mrs. Will Howard bought a place. The bazaar held Saturday night, sponsored by the Pollyanna club, at the McKinley grange hall, was very successful. All who attended had a very enjoyable evening. Noel Sommers and Miss Helen Ambrago, from the agriculture and home extension department in Coquille, attended to help with the judging of the general exhibit booth of farm produce and the bazaar booth. A good profit was made from the bazaar. Two quilts, a project of the Pollyanna club, were given to Mrs. Dick Walters and Joe Laird. A hooked rug, a project of the Juvenile grange, donated and made by Mrs. school teacher, Mrs. Irene Steele.

Supper was sold in the kitchen at midnight. Served were tamales, baked beans, potato salad, pie or cake and coffee. Dancing was enjoyed until 2:30 a. m.

52 Members Attend Hallowe'en Party

Grinning jack-o-lanterns, autumn leaves, and yellow tapers graced the table as 52 members and guests of the P. B. W. club sat down to a bounteous pot-luck dinner Monday evening, October 21.

Group singing occupied the group following the dinner while the tables were cleared. Hattie Lee Holimon, president, called the meeting to order for a short business session, during which time the club voted to abide by the clearing council's decision upon any community project in which more than one club is to be involved in the raising of funds. The council is composed of representatives from each civic club. The members also decided to send a box each month, this winter, to a foreign country for distribution among Internationally Federated B. P. W. women. These boxes contain warm clothing and food, especially items so hard for these women to secure.

Immediately following the business session a "white elephant" auction was held, and a lively and interesting event followed with the members enjoying themselves in spirited bidding. The sum of over $80.00 was made on the sale.

Those present at the meeting were: Viola Newton, Ocie Knife, Ida Oerding, Grace Detlefsen, Helen Abrego, Alice Klens, Daisy Hennagin, Helen Detlefsen, Mabel Hughes, Lela Elrod, Helene Sabert, Hattie Lee Holimon, Christie Thrift, Inez Rover, Georgia Richmond, Georgianna Vaughan, Mabel Johnson, Bonnie Walker, Arlene Robertson, Hazel Hanna, Florence Barton, Jessie Kay, Lois Stevens, Claire Hultin, Cora Mackey, Florence Hallock, Gertrude Sudholter, Eva Stevens, Essie Merchant, Vera Perkins, Mabel Christensen, Bess Maury, Dorothy Tuttle, Emma Pierce, Marie Clinton, Laura Brandon, Opal Halter, Lela McClure, Ida Owen, Margarita Brodie, Ruth Beyers, Sylvia Irelan, Edna Robison, Maymie Geaney, Bertha Smith, Myrtle DeLong, Alice Summers, Ada Howard, Edna Kern, Leah Rover, Inez Chase, Idyle Godard.

The committee in charge of the evening consisted of Arlene Robertson, chairman; Georgianna Vaughan, Bonnie Walker, and Ruth Albhorn.

Sentinel Classified Advs. will sell it.

Laird Rates High In Policy Sales

George P. Laird, Standard Insurance company representative in this area, is among that company's 15 leading salesmen for the first three quarters of 1946, according to Raymond R. Brown, executive vice-president. Laird is a member of the Perry H. Walbridge agency in Eugene.

The company's new insurance business placed in the first three quarters of 1946 totalled $13,099,969, exceeding that of the entire 12 months in 1945. This is a 78 per cent gain over the same nine months of last year.

Insurance applications written during the first three quarters of 1946 totalled 3,291, or 56 per cent greater than written in the same period last year.

A year ago Standard's total insurance in force was $91,050,274. By the end of September this total passed the $105,496,000 mark. The increase of insurance in force in this year's first three quarters more than doubled the increase of the same period last year.

BETTER THAN PRIVATE INVESTIGATION

There's an ancient way in which a purchaser might satisfy himself of clear title to land. That is through an exhaustive review of all deeds, wills, marriages, heirships and other documents by which the property has been conveyed, mortgaged, leased or transmitted over a long period of time. The purchaser of land who protects himself with a Commonwealth Insured Title avoids this endless detail, knowing, too, that no flaw will exist in the title to cause loss.
