Miss Lillie To Wed Coos Bay Man

(Correspondence)
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie have made announcement of the pending marriage of their daughter, Miss Glenda Jean, to Mr. Fred E. Sjogren of Coos Bay on November 10th. The wedding will be consummated at the Arago Community church at seven-thirty o'clock with a candlelight ceremony. Miss Lillie journeyed to Portland last Thursday to complete her trousseau shopping. She returned Sunday afternoon.

A hearty welcome home is extended Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Barklow. The three families are back from their summer residence in Burns, Oregon, where the men were employed in highway construction work.

Also returned is Mrs. Ward Evans, who arrived last Monday from a week's trip to Portland, and to Pendleton, Oregon, where she attended the W. C. T. U. convention. We're glad to report that Donald Peterson, sick since last Wednesday, is much improved.

Also on sick bay is Mrs. Olaf Aasen, under a doctor's care since stricken with a near attack of bronchial pneumonia.

We are glad to welcome to Arago Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, who have taken up residence in one of the old George Hampton places.

Plans seem to be going ahead for the silver tea of the Arago missionary group, scheduled for the second Tuesday in November, instead of the first. The society bows to the more pressing obligation of elections on the first Tuesday.

A Halloween party for the children of Arago was held Thursday afternoon at the school house. Games were played, refreshments of cider and apples were enjoyed, and apparently their appetites for pranks were satisfied, for very little activity was noted Halloween night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vandenburg entertained at dinner Friday night. Guests were Mrs. Irene Allen, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Weybright, and son, Miles.

Jack Knife had a round trip to Grants Pass Friday when he drove a bus-load of school children there for the big football game between Grants Pass and Myrtle Point high school.

Mrs. George Mason and son, Bruce Lynn, returned home Wednesday evening from McAuley hospital, Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kellison and their son, Bobbie, visited with the J. Lynn Burdett and the George Mason families Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Evans took a small trip to Coos Bay Saturday.

Miss Janice Rathman of Norway, Ore., was a houseguest of Charlene Roe Friday and Saturday. Her sister, Jeanette Rathman, also visited the Roe family Sunday evening.

The Arago grade school will play basketball and volleyball games Friday, Nov. 8, with Riverton here in Arago.

Allan Halter, Charlene and Kerwin Roe were Norway visitors Sunday, accompanying Miss Janice Rathman to her home there.

The vicinity of Arago was visited by an airplane Sunday evening, which flew over at low altitude. It was a pretty view of the plane, being all lighted up and heading in the direction of Coquille.

Halloween was rather quiet in Arago, except for a few "trick or treat" hand-outs, a few rings of the school bell and the popping of the J. L. Burdett mercantile store windows and minus a couple of gates, recently restored back to the owners.

In announcing the moving of our office and display room from South Hall beside Safeway to 420 West Front in the Dick's Electric Store, we wish to thank all our many friends of the past year.
