

Entertains

Complimenting her husband's birthday, Mrs. Phillip Barrette invited some friends as a surprise for him Monday evening. Pinocchio was enjoyed with Art Carlile winning high score prize, Stanley Fitzgerald, second, and Mrs. Carlile, third. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour. Invited were Mr. and Mrs. Al Severson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank North, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Art Carlile and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Sherrard.

Jungling To Talk

Coach Enoch Jungling of the high school will talk today at the Lions club on basketball. Sgt. Irving Larson is in charge of the program.

Entertains Farmers

Bob Geaney and J. N. Jacobsen were farm guests of the Rotary club Wednesday. Jim Moorehead, county forester, talked on the plans for development of the forest lands of the county, and County Agent George Jenkins told about the farm planning conference set for Jan. 24th here.

Sam Epperson, city water superintendent and owner of a car which he likes to use, thought he had it all fixed up when he got it from the garage last week. He planned to use it for some time before letting it go back into the garage.

But on Tuesday morning a load of lumber piled off a truck and put his car back in the garage again.

Two Fire Calls

A fire called the department out Sunday morning at Don's Oasis on North Taylor. Small damage was done. On Wednesday a false alarm called the department out.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frenuff are the proud parents of a seven pound and two ounce bouncing baby boy. The stork arrived with the surprise package on Saturday, November 16, at the McAuley Hospital in Coos Bay.

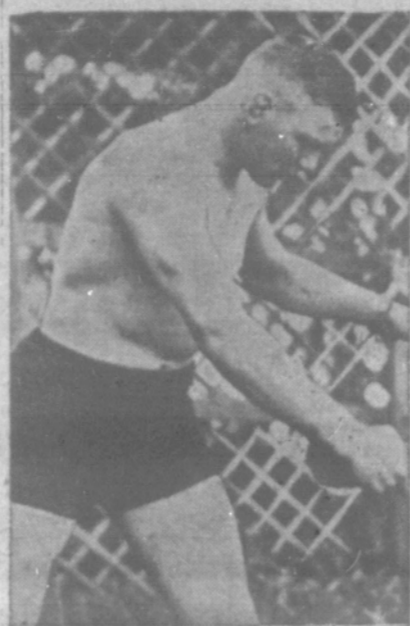

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Driskell left for Walla Walla Tuesday where they will attend the funeral of Mr. Driskell's father who passed away last week in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wood will attend the Oregon-Oregon State football game Saturday. They will stay at Eugene overnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Claver plan on driving up to the Oregon-Oregon State football classic Saturday.

J. Barron Fitzpatrick, field representative for the Boys and Girls Aid society, was a Coquille visitor on Wednesday of this week. He was interviewing families in this vicinity who have applied for the adoption of a child.
