

Elk River Gets Eulogy In Nature Yarn Written By Lans Leneve For Magazine

Elk River, Curry county's famous river, and its beauty, is the object of a nature essay in the December issue of Hunting and Fishing, a national magazine published in the east.

Lans Leneve, "Out-of-Doors" columnist, and contributor to many hunting and fishing magazines is the author of the article.

In the story Lans tells of his preparations for the trip. How he travels through the villages of Langlois, Denmark, and other towns in Curry county. He tells of the rain, and the final playing of a large fish.

Illustrating the article is a fine photograph of Don Stead and Don Ford of Coquille with six big beautiful steelhead.

Union Meeting Dates Are Changed

Meeting dates of the I. W. A. Local 7-394 have been changed to the 2nd and 4th Saturdays of each month, George L. Phelps, financial secretary and business agent, said today.

In recent weeks the union has had a labor dispute with the Coos Bay Lumber over what they term "unjust discharge of a cutting crew" on the Eden Ridge caused when the men refused to ride in a bus the union says is unsafe.

The matter is being discussed this week.
