

Three Initiated In Beulah Chapter Thursday

Three were initiated at the regular meeting of Beulah Chapter, No. 6, O. E. S. Thursday evening, Dec. 28th, in the Masonic Hall, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by Edna Taylor and Bertha Smith.

Small Christmas trees, trimmed with gayly colored balls, were at each Star Point station. Tapers in the emblematic colors and other yuletide trimmings enhanced the attractiveness of the room. The tapers proved a blessing in disguise when the electric lights went out during the evening.

This was the last meeting for the 1946 Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, Florabelle Boober and R. J. Connarn, who made short talks in keeping with the occasion. The Associate Matron, Wilda Schroeder, and Associate Patron, Clarence Tuttle, in behalf of the officers, presented the outgoing matron and patron with lovely gifts in a short degree, which had as its theme, "Among My Souvenirs."

This song, with original words, was beautifully sung by Peg Gould, Eunice Barrow and Stewart Norton, accompanied by Lucille Barklow. Other gifts were presented to the two surprised recipients. At the close of a wonderfully impressive meeting, refreshments in keeping with the holidays were served by Iris Holverson and her committee in the banquet hall downstairs. The long table was artistically decorated with miniature angels, figurines and tapers, carrying out the motif.

Public installation of new officers will be held in the Masonic Hall Thursday evening, Jan. 2nd, at 8:00 p. m.

Marcia Mauney Observes Birthday

Thursday, Dec. 19th, Marcia Mauney, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mauney, observed her 11th birthday with a lovely party from six-thirty o'clock until nine.

Dessert was served at a most attractive table centered with a typical Christmas scene with candelabras at each end. At each place were miniature brass candle sticks with lighted candles and place card attached. Karen and Ann Mauney, younger sisters of Marcia, assisted in serving. Various games were enjoyed throughout the evening. High score prize was won by Frances Ann Fromm and low by Jane Gould. Invited guests were Mary Kistner, Helen Taylor, Geraldine Smith, Nana Foss, Jane Gould, Sharon Larson, Jackie Bowen, Sherrill Hatcher, Nancy Perrott, Diana Schroeder, LeAnna Pownder, Frances Ann Fromm, Joan Benham, Joyce Mitchell and Bobby Jean Harris.

Carolers Please

A group of college youngsters and friends added to the festive note of Christmas last week by caroling around town. They sang all the well-loved carols beautifully. Appreciative listeners at many a home invited them in for Christmas cookies.

Royal Neighbors Elect Officers

A large crowd attended the regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors Wednesday night, Dec. 18th. Special features were election of officers and the annual Christmas party.

Chosen to serve in 1947 were Ruby Johnson, orator; Nellie Martindale, vice orator; Belle Belloni, past orator; Jane Torrey, chancellor; Ida Sherrard, recorder; Agnes Schroeder, receiver; Irene Barett, marshal; Elma Copeland, assistant marshal; Blanche Shepard, inner sentinel; Bessie Mulder, outer sentinel; Ida Benham, three-year manager and Florence Hallock, musician.

Installation of officers will be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 15th. Following the meeting a most enjoyable time was spent with Christmas exchange and refreshments. In charge of the refreshments were Ruby Johnson and Nellie Martindale, the latter serving for Jane Burch, who was ill.

Dan and Eddie Steinmetz spent the Christmas holidays in Portland with their father.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Lewis Wiltshire, bank manager, has been a busy man lately with the rapidly progressing work on the new lobby and office of the First National bank here. When completed it will be a spacious, modern and attractive financial institution.

George Oerding, local real estate and insurance man is sending personal New Year's wishes to all of his many customers and clients.

Home for the holidays was Donna Rankin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Rankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Throckmorton and daughter, Susan, spent Christmas at their cabin on Tenmile Lake. They reported a bright sunny day on the lake.

Boy Scout Christmas tree sales brought in a nice profit for the Lions troop, Dick Barklow, scoutmaster reported.

Clarence Shoemaker is now employed in a photo division of the government work at Moffitt Field, California, friends informed The Sentinel this week. He was originally in charge of printing there, but the government recalled all the equipment to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. R. E. Boober was confined to her house a few days this week with a slight case of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burkhardt and son, Fred, spent Christmas in Portland visiting relatives. They were accompanied by Mrs. Anna M. Rooney and Bonita Miller.

Mrs. Edith Mattoon and Mrs. Edna Rakestraw have returned from Tulalake, Oregon, after spending the holidays with Mrs. Mattoon's daughters there.

Miss Margaret Paulson, of San Francisco, California, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Guy Mauney.

Mrs. Clarence Barton and Miss Margaret Paulson left for San Francisco on Thursday. Mrs. Barton will travel to Los Angeles on a buying trip and to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackleff and daughter, Marianne, spent Christmas Day in Roseburg visiting Mrs. A. S. Ireland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Laird and son, Donald, of Canby, Oregon, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackleff following the holidays.

Wally Moore returned to Eugene on Tuesday for the winter term at the University of Oregon.

Miss Marianne Rackleff left Wednesday for Corvallis where she will begin the winter term at Oregon State college.

Miss Colleen Ireland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ireland in Roseburg over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Chenoweth of Gold Beach visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cox on Saturday.

Mrs. Amy Britton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Britton and family on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Olger (Auggie) Molthu returned Thursday following the holidays which they spent in Chehalis, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fugelson returned this week from a holiday visit to the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tice, at Tenino, Washington.

Whole-meal soups for January menus

VEGETABLE SOUP WITH MEAT BALLS
This typical Mexican whole-meal soup is extremely versatile because canned vegetables may be substituted for the fresh and canned broth or consommé for the stock.

2 tbsps. shortening 2 tbsps. uncooked rice
1 medium-size onion, chopped 1/4 lb. ground pork
1/4 cup tomato sauce 1/4 lb. ground beef
6 cups chicken or beef stock 6 mint leaves, chopped
2 cups shelled peas (1 lb.) 1 slightly beaten egg
2 cups sliced string beans (1/2 lb.) 1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper

Lightly brown onions in melted shortening in heavy kettle with tight-fitting lid. Add tomato sauce and chicken or beef stock; bring to boil. Add vegetables. Make meat balls: Combine rice, ground beef and pork, mint leaves, parsley, egg, salt and pepper. Drop in boiling soup. Cover tightly, simmer 30 minutes, or until meat balls are done and vegetables tender. Serves 6 to 8.

CHILI BEAN CHOWDER
This meatless chowder makes a satisfying whole-meal soup for a cold day.
2 cups dried red kidney beans 2 buds garlic
2 quarts cold water 2 tbsps. chili powder
1 medium-size onion, chopped 1 tsp. oregano or marjoram
3 1/2 cups cooked or canned tomatoes 1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups evaporated milk

Wash beans and drain. Add water, cover and simmer until tender, about 2 hours. Add onion, tomatoes, garlic, and seasonings. Cook until onion is tender and seasonings well blended. Remove garlic. Add milk; heat, but do not boil. Serve in soup plates or bowls garnished with thin slice of lemon. Serves 6 to 8.
