

Play Presented By Ladies of Methodist Church At Program Thursday Afternoon

At the meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 17th, in the Pioneer church parlors, an interesting playlet, "A Century of Struggle," was presented. The eight women taking part, gowned in costumes such as their grandmothers wore, were: Martha McCuskey, Lena McCurdy, Sybil Avery, Elizabeth Chowning, Esther Taylor, Helen Peterson, Georgia Richmond, Zoe Fugelson, and Ruth Shaw. Needless to say the various actresses were most efficient.

During the afternoon, group singing was led by Mrs. Cowden with Mrs. Skeels at the piano. Mrs. Leland Peterson was in charge of the devotions and pledge service; she was assisted by Mrs. George Taylor and Mrs. James Richmond.

Hostesses for the afternoon's refreshments were Mrs. Lloyd Oddy, Mrs. Louis Fugelson and Mrs. V. McCurdy. Others present were Mesdames James Leonard, Florence Cameron, Warren Davis, James Howe, George Howe, J. L. Smith, Carl Morrison, R. T. Slater, Paul Snider, C. C. McCurdy, L. A. Lundquist, George Taylor, Ida Owen, Elmer Davis, Archie Jacobson, Stanton Stevens, Bessie Cowden, Ralph Frussler, Roy Barton, Miranda Way, Noble Chowning, Marvin Shaw, Inez Pinkston, Richard McCuskey, R. L. Newton, Lodia Moomaw, Robert Macdonald, Leland Peterson, E. L. Purvance, James Richmond and Earl Avery.

Neighbors Surprise Mrs. Harvey

Mrs. Helen Harvey of 568 So. Henry street received a real surprise Saturday afternoon when the neighbors gathered there to help her celebrate her 86th birthday. Individual cup cakes, decorated with yellow roses and a white candle, ice cream and coffee were served. Attending the party were Mrs. Anna Sanford, Mrs. Henrietta Carrillo, Mrs. Irving Larson, Mrs. Frank Merten, Mrs. Lonnie Clark, Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, Mrs. Stanley Merten and little Jean Merten. Mrs. Lois Myers was unable to be present but sent a gift. Mrs. Harvey is the mother of Paul Harvey, the movie star.

Newly-Weds Given Party Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wolgamott were honored on Sunday night when a crowd of friends and relatives called at their home.

After a social time of music and visiting, the bride and groom were commended to put on their coats.

A large apron was placed on Ralph and a kerchief on Shirlee and they were escorted to town. A wheelbarrow magically appeared and the bride had a free ride down main street with the groom doing the steering. The parade ended at Curley's place as the bride was wheeled in and everyone had the kind of treat he liked best. A good time was had by all.

Those present were Bill Owens, Everett Steward, Jim Bellmore, Robert Burns, Delphia Owens, Joyce Munger, Shirlee Steward, Nancy Marney, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Klyn, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Van Fleet, Mrs. O. M. Potter, Mrs. Rosie Goodpaster and the bride and groom.

Mrs. Ralph Wolgamott Given Shower

Miss Ralph Wolgamott was honored with a lovely bridal shower on Wednesday evening, the hostess being her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Goodpaster. The many gifts were placed upon a lace-covered table and after a pleasant time of visiting among those present they were opened and inspected. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served to the following:

Mesdames Earl Capps, Ernest Buckner, Micky Boots, Ernest Benham, Ada Howard, Neil Klyn, Wayne Schroeder, Bruce Owens, Arthur Hensley, Richard Danielson, Royce Johnson, Winifred Potter, Wm. Van Fleet, Wm. Steward, Misses Joyce Benham, Joyce Munger, Margaret and Clarissa Byers, Doris Willard, the guest of honor, Mrs. Ralph Wolgamott, and the hostess, Mrs. Elmer Goodpaster. Those unable to come but sending gifts were Sue Alken, Frances Thompson, Alice Rhay, Sue Wasson, Mildred Wardrip.

At McKinley Jolly Gardeners Will Move Home

By Mrs. Delbert King

The regular Jolly Gardeners meeting was held at Mrs. George Glenn's home Jan. 17, at 8:00 p. m.

One of the important accomplishments of the meeting was to get our club house moved from its present site at McKinley to a site situated beside our Grange hall.

Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. S. A. Hutchinson and Mrs. Reuben Brown were chosen as the committee to look over the grounds and decide what tree or shrubbery were to be left when the land is cleared.

Reuben Brown has offered his services in the moving of the club house. A discussion was held on the club putting on a play in the near future. Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Irene Steele and Mrs. Mildred King were chosen to pick the play and also to select the players.

The hostess served chocolate cake and coffee.

Mrs. George Zeigler has been very ill for the past week but is recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Duley have moved from the McKinley mill. Mrs. Letha Crain and daughter, Ludy Lee, are visiting her brothers and sister, George Zeigler, Elroy Zeigler and Mrs. Bradley West and families. Also their mother, Mrs. Roy Zeigler visited here over the week-end.

Donald Flausberg, from Willamina, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Zeigler over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley West and family visited Dick West of Sixes over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zeigler had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Koch and family.

The Old-Time dance held at the Community hall Saturday night proved to be a great success. I am sure everyone enjoyed himself at the dance.

Gene Mast has been very ill the last two days but is improving.

Our regular Grange meeting will be held Saturday night, Jan. 25, at the McKinley Grange hall.

All right, folks, here's what we've been waiting for. A western and hillbilly jamboree, Feb. 1st, at the McKinley Grange hall.

It will start at 9:00 p. m. and prizes will be given to the best western or hillbilly garb. The program and dance will be sponsored by the McKinley Home Extension Unit. Mrs. Woodrow Koch is the chairman.

Mrs. George Zeigler and Mrs. Frank Howard attended the Home Extension meeting held at the city hall for the finance committee.

Mrs. Peart Hostess To Pinochle Club

Mrs. Leland Peart entertained her pinochle club for seven-thirty o'clock dinner Friday evening. Mrs. Walker won high for the evening, Mrs. Ireland, low, and Mrs. Carter received the travelling prize. Attending were Mrs. Carla Savage, Mrs. Alma Minard, Mrs. Merle Carter, Mrs. Rhea Walker, Mrs. Thora Watson, Mrs. Lucia Ireland and Mrs. Vica Croesler.
