

Miss Marvene Henagin Becomes Bride At Lovely Ceremony At The Christian Church

A lovely wedding of early spring united in marriage Miss Marvene Henagin of Coquille to Mr. Earl Butler of Myrtle Point. Rev. Liston Parrish read the double ring ceremony Monday, March 10, at eight o'clock, in the sanctuary of the Christian Church before assembled close friends and relatives.

The wedding party stood before an arrangement of greenery and silver bells, flanked on either side by silver candelabra and bouquets of flowering plant blossoms. About the rooms were King Alfred daffodils and greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown of ivory satin with lace inserts and a short train. Her veil of fingertip length was held in place by a roses, centered with a white gardenia.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Liston Parrish sang, "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Dick Barklow played the wedding marches.

Miss Carmen Repass, maid of honor, wore pink chiffon enhanced by bows. Her flowers were a white gardenia, white carnations and pink lily of the valley.

Miss Ellen Stratton and Miss Virginia Pullen lighted the tapers. Miss Stratton's gown was of aqua marine, flowered taffeta. Miss Pullen wore blue net over blue taffeta. They carried floral muffs of gold carnations and blue hyacinths.

Wally Butler, of Myrtle Point, nephew of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Maurice Williams and Cliff Bissett.

After the ceremony a reception, followed in the church parlors. Daffodils and greenery were used about the room. A hand-made lace tablecloth and white tapers formed a setting for the three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Jesse Williams served the wedding cake. Mrs. Clifford Bissett poured; Mrs. W. E. Jobs and the bride's attendants assisted in serving.

The bride's mother wore a cedar brown wool tulle, blue accessories and gardenia corsage.

After a wedding trip to California, the young couple will make their home in Coquille. For traveling the bride wore a moss green suit, brown accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds and gardenias.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Repass, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bissett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Pullen, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams, Robert Repass, Walter Moore, Mable Whereast, Viven Hayse, Lewis Hayse, Alvin Severson, Mrs. Dick Barklow, Virginia Pullen, Wally Butler, Carmen Repass, Ellen Stratton, Maurice Williams.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jobs, Greenacres; Mr. and Mrs. Farel McQuinn, Springfield; from Myrtle Point, Al Bezosky, Mrs. Julia Harnish, Hedwig Harnish, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butler, Delores Butler, Jim Cotton; from Reedsport, Mr. and Mrs. R. Butler.

500 G. I.'s Taking Farm Training

Nearly 500 Oregon ex-servicemen are taking on-the-farm training with federal assistance in 32 communities throughout the state, Norval H. Pearce, Veterans' Administration training officer for this area, announced today.

These farmer veterans, Pearce explained, are taking up study and supervised practice in such varied fields as dairy, poultry, fruit, nursery, beef, fur farming, and general farming. These are under direct guidance of vocational agriculture instructors in high schools which have Smith-Hughes departments.

Plans Building At Elliott and Second

A modern concrete fireproof building to house his typewriter, adding machine, and office supply business is planned at Second and Elliott by Walter York, who purchased the property from Amy Britton in February.

Mr. York has been in business in the Coquille area for over three years and formerly operated a similar business in southern California. About May 1 he will move into the present building, and start construction when conditions permit.

Woman's Club Hears University Speaker

Attractive arrangements of scacia, daffodils and other spring flowers formed the decorations for the monthly meeting of the Coquille Woman's club in the Guild hall Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened with the club song led by Mrs. R. E. Boober, with Mrs. R. F. Milne at the piano.

The flag salute followed. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Iris Elrod. Mrs. C. L. Tuttle was appointed Transportation chairman for the Tea to be given by the Myrtle Point Woman's club Wednesday, March 26th, in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. J. A. Moore, contact chairman for the Girl Scouts, told of the Court of Honor to be held in the Community building Saturday evening, March 15th, and urged all club members to attend and back the Scouts in their project.

Mrs. Alice Klenz offered to be a Red Cross solicitor and asked for volunteers from the Woman's club.

Mrs. Elrod read the list of girls eligible for the May Day Court: Laura, Emily, Rubie, Lois Hansen, Bonita, Miller, Florene Stoenner, Versie Willis, Patty Geaney, Joyce Benham, Roberta Medley, Mary Anne Walker, Joyce Munger, Marian Gregory, Maxine Willson, Waunda Kintzley, Alice Garoutte and Yvonne Davis.

In keeping with the approaching "17th," "My Irish Molly-O" was sung by the group, led by Mrs. Boober.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. W. E. Bosserman, program chairman, presented Mrs. Genevieve G. Turnipseed, director of dormitories at the University of Oregon, who gave an excellent talk on "Why the Discard Among the Nations."

She cited many reasons, among them the difference in civilization, the feeling of superiority among the races. She stated that the White race as a whole has a superiority complex and that, while other nations fear the U. S., they respect them but are suspicious because they have the atomic secret and many other advantages. It is the same in the world as in small communities—people are not alike in temperament nor in character. She said the Women of the World have more opportunity to bring peace and harmony among the peoples of the world. "Come let us reason together," is the keyword of Democracy.

Following this splendid talk, Mrs. Alice Lafferty presented the double sextette, six boys and six girls of the Washington school, who sang two excellent numbers, "Sing Me a Song" and "America the Beautiful," with solo parts and variations. Little Bobbye Jean Harris introduced the group and sang one of the solo parts. Nancy Frye, a first grader, delighted the ladies with three accordion solos, "The Campbells Are Coming," "Chopsticks" and "Believe me, if all those endearing young charms."

A social time followed with cake and coffee served by Mrs. Clarence Osika and her committee. Present were Mesdames Jennette Cusae, R. L. Medley, J. A. Moore, U. E. McClary, Ed McKeown, A. N. Gould, Fred Kunz, Lloyd Leatherman, George H. Chaney, O. C. Sanford, R. F. Milne, Bert Folsom, W. H. Mansell, Inez Chase, W. Nikolaus, F. A. Robb, Leo Cary, Clarence Tuttle, Tallant Greenough, E. J. Rubie.
