

Large Crowd Attends Valley View School Pie Social With Over $100 Taken In Valley View District

By Fern Mulkey

The Valley View school program and pie social was enjoyed by a large crowd Friday evening.

The primary grade entertained with Nursery rhymes in song.

The intermediate grades entertained with a group of negro spirituals. And the upper grades presented a play which was very humorous and was enjoyed by all.

Marlene Willard and Delores Caudill played piano solos. Jeanette Stone sang and acted out two very humorous songs.

Betty and Susan Wasson, Jeanette Stone and Doris Willard sang three quartet numbers.

Cince Finley auctioned off the many pies.

Proceeds netted over one hundred dollars which is to be used half for the Junior Red Cross and half for the school.

The people of Valley View district always enjoy and are very loyal to their school and its programs.

An error was made in printing last week on the C. C. Smith item. It was supposed to be, "Many friends are glad to see Mr. Smith out of the hospital. He with his wife, Mrs. Smith, plan to leave for San Diego on an extended visit."

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ogden are taking Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith to Albany Saturday where they will visit Mr. Smith's brother, L. H. Smith, and niece, Mrs. Bill Stater. The Smiths will catch the train from there for San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Ogden returning to their home on Rink Creek Monday.

Edith Tennant, Alta McClary, Alma Cunningham and daughter, Nancy, spent Wednesday with Fern Mulkey. The afternoon was spent making doughnuts.

Mrs. Greenfield, Valley View school intermediate teacher, has recovered from an illness. Her friends and pupils are happy to have her back at school again.

Mrs. Cince Finley has returned from a two week trip at Klamath Falls where she visited with her sisters.

George Wasson has been in Ashland the past two weeks on business.

Betty Tobiason and Bill Haquist of Coos Bay were Thursday night callers at the E. J. Cunningham home. Miss Tobiason is Mrs. Cunningham's sister.

The Valley View high school pupils are proud of their new bus. Frank Duney is the driver.

Eight ladies of the Helping Hand group met at Mrs. Henry George's home Thursday. The afternoon was spent in sewing blocks for a quilt. They talked of sending a package to the needy in Europe and one to missionaries in the Philippines. Refreshments were served.

Walter York has purchased the Amy Britton property on Seccad and Elliott streets in Coquille. He plans to build two new business buildings on this property in the near future. In one of the buildings he will carry on with his typewriter business and will rent the other. He is going to sell his property on Rink Creek.

Callers at the C. W. Mulkey home Thursday evening were Mr. Mulkey's mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gleaser of North Bend, and sisters, Mrs. Ruby Dulancy of Drain, Mrs. Violet Drugg of Portland; also Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pellet.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonnell gave a birthday party Saturday evening for Myles, their eldest son. Friends helped him celebrate his birthday with a wiener roast outside and games were played. Gifts were opened and admired and cake and dessert served later in the evening.

Those attending were Velma and Lillian Burcher, Jean McKinney, Marilyn Atkinson, Hazel Mulkey, Delores Caudill, Margaret Ann Brockway, Marlene Willard, Jean Shely, Bonnie and Terry Higgins, Ramona and Madelen Bonnell, Peter Jacobsen, Wayne and Eugene Brown, Eddie and Daryl Atkinson, Donald Mulkey, Jim Brewster, Frank Christensen, Frank Bonnell and Myles.

Adults attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Shilling, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brockway and daughter, host's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bonnell.

Sixth Birthday Celebrated

Saturday afternoon from one o'clock until three, little Barbara Ann Starr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Starr, celebrated her sixth birthday with a party.

A brand new electric train kept the youngsters busy until time for refreshments. Ice cream, a birthday cake with candles and favors for each child, climaxed the happy hours.

Guests were Elsie Watson, Mary Lyn Anderson, Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Sharon, Mrs. Jim Chezem, Donna and Sharon, Jimmie Miller, Mrs. F. Arrell and Jerry, Raymond Cedarquist, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Jerry and Arland, Mary Dee Richardson, Mrs. Dan Rogers, E. J. Zellaney, the two grandmothers, Mrs. J. W. Starr and Mrs. E. Schatzman, and little Barbara Ann. Pictures were taken of the children during the afternoon.

Job's Daughters Meet Monday

Due to the concert at Coos Bay, the last of the series, a few replacements were necessary at the regular meeting of Job's Daughters Monday night. The Bethel voted to have a Queen's Ball on the first night that the Masonic hall was available. Doris Willard, Bethel soloist, sang an Irish solo, followed by the "Wearing of the Green," sung by the celestial chorus.

Harold McCue gave an interesting talk, telling of early days of the Bethel and of bringing several girls from Bandon to attend the meetings.

Following the historian's report, Mr. Hugh, associate guardian, made a short talk. The Bethel paper, "Dead-line," will be printed only once a month hereafter. The money earned at the recent carnival is to go toward the purchase of new robes for the officers, the old ones will be used for the Junior Bethel. Tuesday night, March 18th, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, guardian of paraphernalia, and a few of the girls will go to Roseburg to attend the meeting when the Grand Guardian makes her official inspection.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tallon and two daughters, Margaret and Carolyn of Springfield, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belloni, parents of Mrs. Tallon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Biegger left Sunday for Portland on business. They will return Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson spent the week-end in Tulelake, California, and at Crake Lake, in skiing. Accompanying them were their son's wife, Mrs. George Johnson, and brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morse Stoneypher, and their two children, Ana Lee and Morse.

Clinton Home Scene of Stork Shower Friday

The Theodore Clinton home on the Myrtle Point highway was the scene of a lovely "Stork" shower Friday night for Mrs. Bob Bryan. Hostesses were Mrs. D. H. St. Clair and Mrs. Jack Laird of Portland, Mrs. Wasley Laird of Coquille. The rooms were lovely with beautiful arrangements of anemone, forsythia and camellias. The many attractive packages were wheeled into the room in bassinet, trimmed in pink with a net covering.

After the gifts were opened and admired, delicious refreshments were served. The table was most attractive with a floral centerpiece; napkins made to represent tiny kimonos were at each place, as well as favors, carrying out the shower motif.

Invited guests were Mesdames Bob Harris, Ray Mattoon, Lynn Perrotti, Joe Sayre, Ann Kataph, Howard Moy, "Chuck" Adams, Dick Sherrill, Delbert Driskell, Glenn Gosline, Graydon Anderson, Jack Clinton, Louis Holimon, George Johnson, Orville Wood, Frank Thrift, T. S. Stevens, Floyd Robb, W. E. Bossert.

Mrs. George Johnson left Monday for Fort Riley, Kansas, to join her husband who was transferred from Fort Knox, Kentucky, to Fort Riley. They will make their home in Junction City, Kansas, until he is discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Starr and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Smith and family spent Saturday evening at the roller skating rink at North Bend.
