

Residential Areas To Be Canvassed In Red Cross Drive

Residences are being canvassed by members of the Coquille Woman's club under the supervision of Mrs. I. A. Elrod to spur on the Red Cross drive. It was announced by Ray Glass, general chairman.

Coquille's quota is $2800.00, and to date receipts total only $1151.50. Other towns of comparable size and with similar quotas have already oversubscribed, according to reports from various parts of Oregon.

Larger industrial firms in Coquille have not as yet turned in their checks to the county. Part of these amounts will be credited to Coquille's quota.

Power Off Sunday

Some residents in Coquille awoke last Sunday morning and found that they had no electricity in their homes. The reason for the "outage" was a Winchester Bay motorist, Elbert Denzel Ellsworth, who ran into a power pole on North Taylor street and broke several lines.

According to the Mountain States Power company, the accident occurred at 4:37 Sunday morning, and it took eleven men nearly eight hours to repair the damage and restore power to the affected homes.

Ellsworth was taken to McAuley hospital in Coos Bay and given treatment for minor injuries by passing motorists.

Sheriff's Office

Ruth Melba Lange, charged with assault while armed with a dangerous weapon and whose husband is in a serious condition in the McAuley hospital, Coos Bay, was released on Tuesday from the county jail upon the order of Justice Elmer Russell of North Bend.

Ball for Mrs. Lange had been set at $2500.00. It was reduced to $2000.00 which was posted and her release thus effected.

Netting on a closed stream was the charge against Harold Fred Gardner which has cost him $300.00 in fine money and will keep him in the county jail for 30 days from March 11th. He was sent in by Curry county Justice Court No. 1.

Enjoy oranges these new ways

Vitamin-rich orange juice, grated orange rind, and orange sections do wonders in adding color and flavor to many dishes. Here are some of our favorite ways with oranges.

ORANGE PASTRY—Try this with lemon or lime chiffon pie; or use it as the crust for a fresh fruit pie. And it gives a delightfully different flavor to pumpkin pie.

Sift and measure 2 cups all-purpose flour. Sift again with ½ teaspoon salt. Cut ¾ cup shortening into flour with 2 knives or pastry blender until particles are the size of small peas. Add gradually 4 to 5 tablespoons orange juice and 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, mixing only until pastry holds together. Wrap in waxed paper; chill thoroughly. Sufficient for two 9-inch shells or one 2-crust 9-inch pie.

ORANGE GOLD PARSNIPS—Even the "don't like parsnips" crowd will go for this combination.

Simmer 6 medium-size parsnips in water to cover until tender, about 25 minutes. Drain and cool. Peel and cut into lengthwise strips, removing any tough cores. Place in a greased 2-quart baking dish; sprinkle with ¼ cup brown sugar, salt, pepper and paprika. Pour ½ cup orange juice over the parsnips and dot with butter or margarine. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 30 minutes. Garnish with orange slices. Serves 6.
