

Doings of Local People

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Grimes returned Saturday evening from a business trip to Portland.

Dr. J. D. Rankin now has a new Chrysler he purchased on a recent trip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Stevens are on a trip to Washington where they are visiting friends. They will return Sunday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Savage are the owners of a new Ford V-8.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wilbur have moved to Bunker Hill in the Coos Bay area.

Judge L. D. Felsheim came to Coquille Monday night to attend a county welfare meeting and waited until 9:30 before he decided the lights would not go on. He had come up from Bandon where a municipal plant had furnished power all day for local users.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Connarn and family are moving to Portland soon, having sold their home here to Mr. Fults. Mr. Connarn was formerly REA manager in Coquille.

Office girls in the REA office Monday were busy answering calls from Southern Curry county when the lights went out. The REA purchases juice from Mt. States and a breakdown on the Mt. States lines affects them directly.

The plane owned by the son of Ivan Laird of Brewster valley is interesting to see in the broad fertile fields of that section of Coos county. The Lairds plan on buying a new four place cabin plane soon.

Walter Lake is no longer connected with the Bandon Stationery and is now selling investment stocks for an eastern company. He will eventually move to Roseburg.

Mrs. Corinne Walsh and small son spent Sunday on the Bandon beaches. Mrs. Walsh said it was warm and mild and many beach walkers had taken off their shoes.

Mrs. Glenn Brooks of Lafayette and Mrs. Della Hembree of McMinnville were Coquille visitors Monday on their way to Gold Beach and Northern California on a short driving trip.

Week-end guests of the Robert Lundy's were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cyronek and daughter, Joanne, of Berkeley, California, and Miss Celi Cyronek, also of Berkeley, brother and sister of Mrs. Robert Lundy. Easter Sunday was enjoyed at the home of Verne Lundy in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCue attended a family dinner party Sunday in Myrtle Point in honor of W. R. Lee's 84th birthday. Mr. Lee is the father of Mrs. McCue.

Candles Light Meeting of B. P. W. Monday

Only eleven attended the meeting of the B. and P. W. club Monday night in the Guild hall, which was held by candlelight. Miss Inez Rover presided in the absence of the president, Hattie Lee Holimon, who was ill. Ida Oerding, chairman for Fun night, which will be held Monday night, April 21st, announced a seven o'clock potluck dinner. Each member is asked to bring a "white elephant," which will be used as prizes for "Bingo."

Mothers' night will be held Monday night, May 5th. Election of officers resulted in the following being chosen: Inez Rover, president; Idyle Godard, first vice president; Cora Mackey, second vice president; Georgianna Vaughan, treasurer, and Grace Dettelsen, secretary. A report was given that the past presidents of the club had packed and sent a box of clothing, etc., to Norway.

Following the meeting, Bertha J. Smith, refreshments chairman, invited the ladies to her house, so with candles in their hands, the ladies proceeded to Bertha's, where a deluge of refreshments awaited: sandwiches, carrot sticks, celery, banana nut-bread and colas. Enjoying the meeting and aftermath were Alice Klenz, Cora Mackey, Georgianna Johnson, Ada Howard, Alice Summers, Laura Brandon, Inez Chase, Grace Dettelsen, Inez and Leah Rover and Bertha Smith.

Mrs. Benham Hostess To Dorcas Society

Mrs. Carrie Benham, vice president of the Dorcas group of the Church of Christ, was hostess to the ladies last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Benham presided over the short business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Sloan, whose husband is very ill.

Mrs. John Boots, in charge of the devotions, read a lovely Easter poem in a most impressive manner. Mrs. Guy Kelley brought tea towels for the ladies to work on. Ice cream and cookies were served by Mrs. Benham to the following ladies: Mesdames Jack Young, Guy Keeley, Alton Dungey, Belle Hooton, John Boots, Amos Payne, E. E. Nosler, Harold McCue and Tom Benham. The group will meet with Mrs. Rayne in May.

Eagles Auxiliary Hold Myrtle Point Meeting

The Eagles Auxiliary sewing club met with Mrs. Ethel Kincheloe in Myrtle Point Wednesday. Seventeen members and guests were present. Mrs. Edythe Frenier won the door prize. A delicious potluck lunch was served at noon. The day was spent in sewing and making plans for the Eagles state convention in Medford in June.

Those present were: Mesdames Ethel Kincheloe, hostess; Elizabeth Bartles, Mollie Hurrell, Ethel Parrish, Betty McClure, Hester Menning, Hattie Gaffey, Jessie Adams, Bertha Wilson, Cleo Lawhorn, Ora Brewster, Minnie Dalrymple, Margaret Spores, Edythe Frenier, and Mary Johnson. Guests were Ruth Barklow and Edna Marshall.

Next club will be with Mrs. Constance Powder, in Coquille on April 16th.

California Visitor Complimented

Complimenting her sister, Miss Elynor Oerding, of Santa Rosa, Calif., Mrs. William Klenz entertained with a lovely Easter dinner party Sunday. Unique and attractive arrangements of colored Easter eggs, Easter bunnies, white lilacs and variegated tulips fashioned the decorations. A chicken dinner was served at two o'clock; the candle-light table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered with a bouquet carrying out the Easter motif.

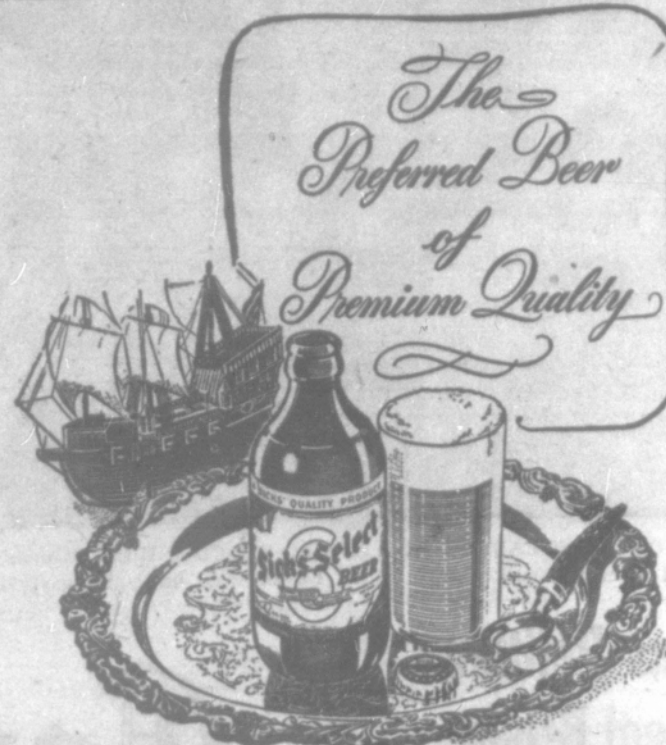

Cards were enjoyed during the afternoon with Dr. Gutman winning high score. A buffet supper was served at eight o'clock, followed by moving pictures of Alaska displayed by LeRoy Rice. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins of Coos Bay, Dr. Eleanor Gutman, Miss Ida Oerding, LeRoy Rice, the honored guest, Elynor Oerding and Mr. Klenz.

The Home Extension Unit will meet Tuesday April 15th, at the home of Mrs. Hazel George on Rink creek. Subject is "Buffet Entertaining." All those needing transportation, please call Mrs. Laird (289M) or Mrs. Walker, (14M).

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moomaw, Jr., are spending their Easter vacation visiting in the Willamette valley. They will visit friends in Eugene, their son at O.S.C., and their daughter at Monmouth where she is attending college.

Bill Barrow is driving a new Chevrolet.
