Past Noble Grands Meet Friday Evening

The Past Noble Grands club met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Boober Friday night with Mrs. Charles Carmichael as co-hostess. Bouquets of roses and hawthorne fashioned the decorations as well as a lovely mixed bouquet received by the hostess from her Secret Sister. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Florence Hallock. Florabel Boober was elected secretary-treasurer to complete the unexpired term of Mrs. Clara Morrison, whose resignation was accepted. Announcement was made of the Mother & Daughter banquet, May 10th.

Roll call was responded to with clever stories and a poem. The club will meet with Florence Hallock June 6th. Following the meeting, members gathered in a circle and played "Hot Potato," a game for fun and excess energy. When everyone was ready to indulge in quieter activity, contract rummy and Chinese checkers were enjoyed. Florence Hallock won the prize at rummy and Birdie Skeels, at checkers. Mrs. Shelley received the door prize. Ice cream, topped with raspberries, cookies and coffee were served on trays replete with May flowers and napkins carrying out the motif. Present were Mrs. Hattie Shelley, Mrs. T. S. Stevens, Mrs. Earl Schroeder, Mrs. Pansy Ross, Mrs. Elmer Neely, Mrs. Elta McPherson, Mrs. Birdie Skeels, Mrs. Florence Hallock, Mrs. Carl Morrison, Mrs. Jack Leach and Fern, Mrs. J. P. Beyers and Miss Ida Oerding.

Gladioli To Be Presented City

President Chub Allord of the Active club received a shipment of gladioli bulbs from the Grants Pass Active club this week, he reported at the regular meeting of the club held in the Coquille Hotel last Thursday evening.

He will present the bulbs to the Chamber of Commerce for the Grants Pass club. Each year there is held a gladioli festival in Grants Pass sponsored by the Active club and as an advertising feature for their town, the club sends out bulbs all over the state.

Other business coming before the meeting included introduction of guests: Bob Bailey, Fritz Kunz and Lyle Culver. Mr. Stub Morris of the Kirkland, Washington, Active club was also a visitor at the meeting. The Fourth of July committee, Bob Mason, Elvin Widmark, and Wayne Schroeder, were instructed to meet the committee from the Chamber of Commerce tonight to make plans for the coming celebration.

A group of the high school band entertained the members of the club with several musical pieces and Lyle "Buz" Culver, formerly with Curley's Wranglers, played several numbers on his steel guitar.

Attends Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCue attended the reception at Gardner Saturday night, April 26th, honoring Mrs. Clara Melvin, Grand Martha of the Grand Chapter of Oregon. Over 175 were present from the various chapters in the state.

The Home Demonstration Unit will meet Tuesday, May 13th, in the kitchen of the I.O.O.F. hall. Subject will be "Sea Foods." Bring place setting, gift for grab bag and white elephant.
