Missionary Society Meets At Christian Church Thursday Afternoon With Mrs. Boots

The church parlors of the Christian church were attractively decorated with early summer flowers in pink and blue for the meeting of the Missionary society Thursday after, June 18th. Mrs. John Boots, president of the group, presided at the business meeting and gave the devotions, quoting from memory a chapter of scripture. "India" was the subject for study; various clippings were read by the members relative to conditions and religious activity. Betty Crim and Bobby Stanford, in colorful costumes of India, read short stories of the "Slave Boy" and "Let Me Beware." Following the meeting, the girls served rolls, marmalade and tea to the following ladies: Mesdames Minnie Young, Guy Kelley, Harold McCue, John Boots, Amos Payne, Maud Tracy, Archie Hatcher, H. Wardrip, Alton Dungey, Belle Hooton and Henry George.
