Edna Hartson won high score, Leta Leslie second and Zettie Hawkins the travelling prize, when the Monday night club met with Mrs. E. W. Lorenz this week for seven-thirty o'clock dessert this week. Bouquets of summer flowers fashioned the decorations.

Members attending were Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. E. E. Leslie, Mrs. Edna Hartson, Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Mrs. Muri Pettit.

Birthday Party Honors Mrs. Rodgers

A birthday surprise party was given honoring Mrs. Dan Rodgers on Monday, July 7, when a group of friends arranged a potluck dinner which was held at her home.

The guests presented Mrs. Rodgers with an end table and three birthday cakes.

Attending the party as well as Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers were Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Watson, Wayne Starr, J. W. Starr, Larry Winn, Herbert Sibold, Francis Arrell, Sandra Pierce, Elsie Watson, Barbara Starr, Rita Winn, Geary Arrell, all of Coquille. From Redmond were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Redmond and daughter, Louise; from Canby, Miss Shirley Hartley; from Creswell, Mrs. E. J. Beleny, E. J. Jr., Rhea and Julia.

Miss Zosel Married In McMinnville

Of interest to Coquille people was the wedding Monday night, June 30th, of Miss Sarabelle Alice Zosel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zosel of McMinnville, to Mr. Richard S. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Boyd of Naches, Waash. The candle-light, double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Earl Parker at the First Methodist church in McMinnville. The church was beautifully decorated with Croft lilies and white candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin dress with a train and finger tip veil banded with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a double cascade of white baby's breath. Her only attendant was Miss Ruth Wahlgren who acted as maid of honor. She wore a blue net over blue satin and cap head-dress. She carried a French bouquet of pink carnations. The bride's mother wore a watermelon crepe gown with sequins and a baby orchid corsage and the groom's mother wore a blue evening gown and a corsage of white gardenias. Earl Paquette of Portland acted as best man for the groom.

The ushers, Howard Badley of Dayton and Richard Nokes of Portland, lighted the candles. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception in charge of Mrs. A. C. Gragg of Salem, was held in the church parlors attended by 200 guests. Mrs. Amy Gilliland of Randall, Wash., aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Walter Zosel, aunt of the bride, poured. Mrs. Lloyd Wilson, an aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. After the reception, the newly-weds left on a two week honeymoon trip. August 1st they will leave for Chicago where the groom will attend the University of Chicago to do graduate work toward his master's degree.

The bride, who formerly lived in Coquille, attended Linfield college and is a graduate from the Emanuel School of Nursing in Portland. The groom, a graduate of Linfield college, has done post graduate work at U. of O. and the University of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruble of Coquille attended the wedding. Mrs. Ruble is an aunt of the bride.

Sea Scouts Adding New Members

The Coquille troop of Sea Scouts made up of boys over 15 and led by Scoutmaster Clarence Bean now has nine members, it was stated today.

In the troop are Jim Kay, Jim Newton, Miles Bonnell, Don Mulkey, Bill Melton, Ted Parrish, Bill Anderson, Bert George, and Wayne Morgan.

They meet each Tuesday night in the Community building at 7:30. The local American Legion post No. 36 is backing the troop and plans call for a boat for the Coquille river and a club house to be built on the Coquille.

Those reporting were the president, Eula McIntee; treasurer, Lena McNair, and conductor, Ida Roth.

At McKinley

By Mrs. Delbert King.
Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Brown and family, also Mrs. Frank Howard, spent a very lovely holiday in Santa Rosa at a family reunion. They left Wednesday morning and returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert King and family and Mrs. King's brother, Donald Bourrell, left Wednesday afternoon for a trip to Medford, where a family reunion was held at Mr. and Mrs. Elmer King's home and also where C. O. Charles King lives. At one time they resided here in McKinley. Wednesday night was spent at Camas Valley where Mr. and Mrs. King and family visited Mr. King's sister, Velva Hatfield, and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hatfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. Walsh. Mrs. Velva Hatfield and family accompanied them on their trip to Medford. They arrived there late Thursday night and left Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Delbert King visited at Rogue River with old friends and schoolmates.

Mr. and Mrs. John Merritt from Los Angeles visited over the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Merritt. Mr. and Mrs. R. Campbell had visitors over the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. E. Castleman and son, Nathan, from Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Churchill left Tuesday for Eugene to visit friends there. They arrived home Thursday night. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hatfield and Mr. and Mrs. H. Walsh at Camas Valley on the way to Eugene and spent Wednesday night there on the way home. Because of having being on a trip could not be taken but the fireworks were taken in by Mr. and Mrs. Milford Mast and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mast and Mrs. Mildred King.

Mrs. Mildred King took care of the Coos County Youth Camp last week in order to let Mr. King and family attend the family reunion.

Thursday evening Mrs. Delbert King and son, Mike, were taken ill with intestinal flu so the two-year old birthday party for Mike, which was to have been held Monday, has been called off. Mrs. King and Mike were feeling better Tuesday.

The Pollyanna club meeting will be held at Mrs. Delbert King's home. Mrs. Mildred King will be there to help take care of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Art Davis in Fairview over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley West and family were visitors in Charleston and Langlois where they pick up Mrs. West's grandmother, Mrs. Meek, who is visiting with them and her other grandchildren here at McKinley.
