Guests At Klenz Home
House guests at the Wm. E. Klenz home were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. King and J. C. Ebel of Elmhurst, Long Island. They are cousins of Mrs. Klenz and the Oarding family. They took time out from their business of interior decorating in Long Island, to enjoy their first trip by auto to the west coast. They were so impressed with the beautiful scenery and hospitality of the Oregon people that they became interested in the idea of moving to Oregon. While in Coquille, they looked over several properties for investment.
