Lovely Mid-Summer Wedding Features Marriage Rites Of Mrs. Ann Kamph

A lovely wedding of late summer was the one held Saturday afternoon, Aug. 23rd, when Ann Hawkins Kamph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, became the bride of Donald T. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith, at St. James' Episcopal church. Rev. R. L. Greene officiated and Mr. Bobby Burns played the wedding music. The church was beautifully decorated, vases of pink amaryllis were on the altar and tall baskets of pink glads on either side. The bride wore a brown silk dress, brown hat with pink feather trim and carried an arm bouquet of pink asters and pink carnations looped with pink satin ribbon. Mrs. Lloyd Thomas of Reedsport, a sorority sis-

and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Smith, the groom's mother wore a moss green dress, matching hat and corsage of pink carnations. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception for the wedding party was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Ida Owen poured.

The newlyweds left on a ten-day honeymoon trip and on their return, will make their home in Coquille. The bride, a graduate of Coquille High school, attended St. Helen's Hall junior college and the University of Oregon, and belonged to Gamma Phi Beta.

The groom, also a graduate of Coquille high, graduated from the University of Oregon and is now employed in Coquille. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.
