Colorful Autumnal Flowers Decorate Dinner Tables At McClary Home Tuesday

Covers were laid for sixteen when Mr. and Mrs. U. E. McClary entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening. The dinner table, centered with a bowl of autumn flowers and flanked with tapers in a color scheme of rose and lavender, was lovely. Four tables of bridge were in play following dinner. Prize winners were Mrs. Walter Litzberger, Mrs. Otto Zentner, Mr. Ray Hunsaker and Mr. Dave Rackleff.

The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Litzberger, Mr.

and Mrs. Otto Zentner, Dr. and Mrs. R. N. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Rackleff, Mr. and Mrs. Tallant Greenough, Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Kennedy, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunsaker.

Miss Ida Oerding Complimented on Birthday

A real birthday surprise greeted Miss Ida Oerding Tuesday evening as she entered the home of her sister, Mrs. William Klenz, where a group of friends were gathered to honor her birthday anniversary with a "hanky shower." Miss Elynor Oerding was co-hostess.

In the spacious rooms before a lighted fireplace, at tables artistically decorated with fuchsia, marigold and baby breath, dessert was served. Wishes were exchanged as the lighted peppermint angel birthday cake was brought in.

A beautiful gardenia corsage was presented to Miss Oerding after which Oklahoma was played, with prizes for high score being won by Mrs. Alex Mackey, Miss Ida Oerding and Miss Wilma Hefner. Consolation prize was won by Mrs. Jess Beyers. Travelling prize was won by Miss Hefner.

"Happy Birthday" was sung by the guests while Miss Oerding opened her "hanky" gifts. Attending were Mrs. Florence Hallock, Mrs. Tom Detlefsen, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Jess Beyers, Mrs. C. L. Tuttle, Mrs. George Oerding, Mrs. Alex Mackey, Miss Inez Rover, Miss Wilma Hefner, Miss Ida Oerding, Mrs. Klenz and Miss Elynor Oerding, co-hostess.
