Varied Events Set For OSC Homecoming

All the traditional events and a few extras are being prepared at Oregon State college by student committees and the alumni association to entertain several thousand alumni expected for the annual Homecoming celebration Saturday, November 15.

While the main attraction is the WSC-OSC football game, the colorful house signs, noisy rally, the bonfire, midnight matinee and the mixer dances are all to their prewar places in the program.

In addition the noontime barbecue in the armory, which proved so popular last year, will be repeated, as will the after-game free coffee-and-doughnuts jamboree in the armory, where class groups meet in designated sections for a talk fest over steaming coffee cups.
