met at the Sixes grange hall last Friday at 12:30 with a discussion of Color and Fabrics. Mrs. Roberts showed a film on color. There will be a meeting of the 4-H Leaders and those interested in 4-H work at Port Orford on Saturday Jan. 10, at 10 a. m. in the Legion hall. On Jan. 14 at 1 p. m. there will be a meeting at the Grange hall for those who are interested in the "Cotton Dress Workshop."
The next regular meeting will be Friday, Jan. 23 at 11 a. m. with pot-luck lunch at noon. All ladies are asked to bring in their pressure gauges to have them checked. This meeting will be a sewing machine clinic and those who want to work on their machines will please bring them to the hall. Following the meeting those present gave gifts to Mrs. Roberts for her new home in Gold Beach. Refreshments of cookies and tea were served by Mrs. Florence Adolphson, Marion Brooks, Ollie Burgess. New members were Mahala Marney and Mrs. Flossie Croft.

Basketball
The Langlois Independent basketball team and its members wish to thank those who attended the dance and also those who bought tickets. The dance was held last Saturday at the Langlois high school gym, with the Langlois Tune Butchers playing, and those attending enjoyed a fine evening. The team will not be able to purchase their suits. Two games were played last week in Coquille, on Monday night they played the Merchants with the final score, Coquille Merchants 23, Langlois 20; Wednesday the score was Coquille Active club 33, Langlois 25. The next games scheduled are after the Christmas holidays with both games to be played in the Langlois high school gym. On Jan. 5, Myrtle Point; Jan. 8, Arago. Admission, adults 50c, students 25c, children 15c. Don't forget to attend these home games.
