Daughter's Engagement Announced At Party On New Year's Day

At a New Year's day party at their country home, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Rankin announced the engagement of their daughter, Donna, to Richard H. Hazard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin H. Hazard of Pasadena. Miss Rankin, a student of the University of Oregon, Eugene, attended Coquille high school for three years and graduated from St. Helen's Hall in Portland. She is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the university.

Mr. Hazard, a graduate of a Pasadena high school, is also attending the University of Oregon. He is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

The wedding will take place on August 8th.

Burr's Hold Party New Year's Eve

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Burr were guests at the Burr home night to help see the old year out, and the New Year in. This is an annual holiday affair.

SOC Player Makes All-American

Southern Oregon College, Ashland, Jan. 3, Chuck DeAutremont, Southern Oregon college's star halfback, was picked for the second team on Paul Williamson's Little All-American. Williamson, national football rater, senior at left halfback, DeAutremont has been the sparkplug of the Red Raiders for two years, and has starred in basketball as well. He recently announced that he has been offered a contract to play professional football with the 49-ers of San Francisco, and will probably accept. Details of the contract were not disclosed.

Powers Notes

(Too late for last week)

Mrs. R. R. Bixler spent the holidays with her daughter in Santa Ana, California, her first visit with her new granddaughter. The Bixlers are operating an Archery Shop on the old Sibold place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Shepherd spent the holidays with Mr. Shepherd's sister in Medford, Oregon.

Mrs. Mamie Collier is visiting at the George Stewart home. Mrs. Collier formerly lived in Powers.

Mrs. Rosa Knight of Myrtle Point, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Stewart.

Principal Wm. Anderson is reported ill with the flu.

Mrs. Bonnie McCarole and small daughter returned to Portland after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crew.

Mrs. Nellie Lewis returned from the Mast hospital on December 24, somewhat improved and able to enjoy Christmas.

Old friends of Mrs. Mae Elliott will be shocked to learn of her death which occurred in Portland December 27. Mrs. Elliott was a pioneer of Coos county and lived for many years in Powers.

She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, Claude and Clyde, of Millington, and a daughter, Mrs. Broililar of Portland, besides 7 grand children and 5 great grandchildren. Her husband preceded her in death 13 years ago. She leaves a sister Mrs. Eva Cook, of Portland.

Funeral services were Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Mills Funeral Home, Coos Bay and burial at Sunset cemetery. Her five grandsons acted as pall bearers, they were Everill and Howard Broililar, Portland; Clyde Elliott, Jr., Keith Jr., Donald Elliott, Coos Bay, and Jackie Mathews, Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones spent Christmas with relatives in Brewerton and Seattle, Washington.
