

News Happenings In Northern Curry County

The Floras Willow club held their regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. Jean Strain, Thursday, Jan. 8, with a potluck lunch at noon. Quite a few regular members were in attendance. The club was glad to welcome three new members who are Mrs. Rosa A. Strain, Mrs. Gladys Strain and Mrs. Marjorie Strain. A short business meeting was held and the club voted to buy a five dollar bond for the Christmas seals. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Vera Pook, who lives on the Airport road, on Thursday, Jan. 22. Due to the absence of both the president and secretary, Mrs. Jean Strain acted as president and Ethelene Thompson as secretary. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting. Also remember to bring articles for auction to be held, with Mrs. Jean Strain as auctioneer.

A Mixer was held at the Langlois grade school gym last Friday night with a good attendance. Games were played by the students with Kenneth Thompson in charge, assisted by Clarence Fain. Bingo was played by the others and dancing followed which was enjoyed by all who attended. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served with Ethelene Thompson, Esther Phillips, Essie Crew, Ollie Kreutzer and Helen Fain serving. The students worked in crews of two to wash the dishes. Music for dancing was furnished by the "Langlois Tune Butchers." The next Mixer will be held on Friday, Feb. 13, so plan to attend.

At Riverton

(January 6, 1948)
Here at Riverton we have water aplenty. The low fields are all under water and the ole river is about to overflow the banks. The ferry has been closed and we are wondering and waiting, if we are going to have "high water."

The guns are quiet today as many hunters were out the last day for ducks yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton were pleasantly surprised one day this week when friends, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rhodes and small son from Menlo Park, Calif., dropped in for a visit.

Miss Marjorie Anderson of Portland left Monday morning after spending the holidays at the McEl-downey home.
