Library Presented With Book Plates Which Are Used To Note Gifts To Shelves

A few months ago the Coquille Library was presented with beautiful book plates by the Women's club of this city. These plates are to be placed in gift books presented to the library by an individual or by clubs in memory of some loved one who has passed on.

The original copy was drawn by Bob Harbison who has recaptured our stately Community building and Southwestern Oregon's Myrtle trees. The plate, itself, is printed on a high grade of light tan paper. The drawing and printing are in various shades of brown. The wreath which nearly encircles the picture of the Community building are myrtle leaves and not laurel as you may believe.

The following books were presented to the library by friends and family in memory of Mrs. E. L. Thompson: "Treasury of Horse Stories," by self; "Camellias," Gerber; "Roses in Color," Mansfield; "Illustrated Ency. of American Birds," Housman; "Garden Flowers in Color," Holey; "New Garden Encyclopedia," Seymour; "Garden Bulbs in Color," MacFarland; Trees and Shrubs for Pacific," Grant; "Outdoor Life Encyclopedia," "Lost Woods," Teale; "North American Games Birds," LaMonte; "Guns and Gunning," Curtis; "Trout," Bergman; "American Sporting Scene," Kieran; "Horses," self; "Pleasant Valley," Bromfield; "Americans' Garden Book," Bush-Brown; "My Friend, Flicka," O'Hara; "Thunderhead," O'Hara; "Justus Morgan Had a Horse," Herve; "Wild Horses of the West," Wyman; "Good Shot," Holland.

In behalf of the past presidents of the Coquille Business and Professional Women's club, Mrs. George Richmond presented the library with Clarke's "Stepping Stones," in memory of Belle Gould.

The last book presented in memorial was given by the Rotary club in memory of the late Henry N. Lorenz. The book was "Grangers' Index to Poetry and Recitations."
