At Broadbent Extension Unit Meets At Bonnicksen's

The Broadbent Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Clifford Bonnicksen on Wednesday, January 21st, when the project leaders, Mrs. Lloyd Davenport and Mrs. Reuben Mattson led the discussion on wall finishes and the use of the penetrating seal as a floor finish. Actual samples of wall finishes and treatment of cracks was thoroughly explained, proving to be helpful to the homemakers.

At noon a luncheon consisting of meat loaf, salad, peaches, cake and coffee was served buffet style. During the recreation hour Mrs. Frank Northup was pleasantly surprised when she was presented with a number of gifts.

During the business meeting committees were appointed to plan the annual party for the husbands. Mrs. Victor Howard, Mrs. Earl Royer and Mrs. Ralph Gibbs were appointed to arrange a date and the meeting place. Those in charge of entertainment are Mrs. Jean Davenport, Mrs. Emily Shull and Mrs. Mary McAllister.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marilyn Mattson in Lee valley on February 18th, when Mrs. Running, home demonstration agent, will give the demonstration on "Pressure Saucepans." Those members desiring transportation should call either Mrs. Reuben Mattson or Mrs. Roderick Hermann.

At the close of the meeting the group enjoyed a number of paintings showing "Interior Decorating." These paintings were the work of Ernest Clausen, Jr., who is attending art school in Los Angeles. Mrs. Victor Howard and Mrs. Ralph Gibbs reported on the progress of the Camp Cookery and Livestock clubs which were organized recently. Mrs. Lloyd Smith and Mrs. Arza Smith will represent the unit at the Dress Shop which will be held in the county at a later date.

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Ray Brooks, Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mrs. Ralph Gibbs, Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Victor Howard, Mrs. Roy Carnall, Mrs. Roy Luttrell, Mrs. Verlin Moore, Mrs. Arza Smith, Mrs. Frank Northup and Sharon, Mrs. Roderick Hermann and George, Mrs. Earl Royer, Mrs. Ernest Clausen, Mrs. Orin Lett, Mrs. Sam Root, Bobby and Mark, Mrs. Ansil Northup and Mary Ann, Mrs. Roy McAllister, Mrs. Ellis Shull, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Oliver Shull and Lee Ray, Mrs. Keith Northup and Iris, Mrs. Lloyd Davenport, Joyce Northup, Mrs. Reuben Mattson and the hostess, Mrs. Bonnicksen.

At Broadbent

House Guests
A recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Royer was the latter's brother, Harry Rogers of Coos Bay. Mr. Rogers is employed at Sunbaum's Shoe shop in North Bend, where he is learning the shoe repair trade and to make custom built shoes. Additional guests at the Royer home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Knight of Inglewood.

Cast Removed
Ellis Shull who suffered a broken bone in his foot several weeks ago has had the cast removed and is able to be about on crutches. Mr. Shull was constructing a hog house when the frame work collapsed, causing him to get a severe fall, breaking a bone in his foot. Oliver and Roy Shull were helping and also received bad falls but were unhurt other than bruised and shaken up.

Makes Portland Trip
Albert Moore accompanied by John Kennedy made a trip to Portland on Sunday of last week. On Monday they brought back a sawmill for the H. H. Herzog Lumber company. The mill will be installed on the cemetery road near Myrtle Point. Mr. Moore is co-owner in the Moore Brothers Texaco Service station in Myrtle Point.

Point Leaves For Denver

Acil Riley left the first of last week for Denver, Colorado, where she has employment in a department store. She has been a house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Smith, since before Christmas. She came to spend Christmas with her parents and to be near her brother, Sgt. Hobart Smith, Jr., who was seriously injured in a truck accident several weeks ago near Anchorage, Alaska, where he was stationed. Sgt. Smith is at present in an army hospital in Fort Lewis.

Mrs. George Nelson was in Coos Bay on Tuesday of last week, where she was transacting business and visiting friends.

Take Sunday Trips
Several from the community took advantage of the sunny weather over last week-end and enjoyed short trips. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Illie Thomas who enjoyed a trip to Gold Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Moore who drove to Cape Sebastian for the day.

Eldon and Verlin Hermann returned last week from several days in Seattle and Olympia, where they had been visiting friends and relatives.

Church Services Held
Church services were held immediately following Sunday school on Sunday, January 18. Rev. W. J. Barnett gave the sermon. Services are held at the church the third Sunday of each month. J. R. Wiley who has been conducting services at the church every Sunday evening has been unable to do so the last few Sundays due to illness. He is reported to be improving, however, and hopes to be able to continue holding his regular Sunday evening services again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Shull returned to their home on January fourteenth, from an extended trip to Portland and south to Grants Pass. While in Portland they were guests at the home of Mrs. Shull's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Laughlin. During their trip they were also house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shull at their home in Grants Pass. She is an aunt of Oliver. On their way home they visited Mrs. Shull's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoffmeister, and other relatives in Roseburg. Wayne Shull was a guest of his grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmeister near Gaylor, while Lee visited an aunt, Emma Barzee, at Gravelord during their parents' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Root and family were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Barnett on Sunday, following church services.

Mrs. George Hermann was in Albany from Wednesday until Sunday of last week, where she was attending a convention of the Brethren church. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Reed of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Green were called to Roseburg on Wednesday last week by the illness of Mr. Green's mother, Mrs. R. W. Green. She is reported to be improving.

Cookery Club to Meet
The 4-H Camp Cookery club will hold their first regular meeting at the home of the leader, Mrs. Victor Howard, this coming Saturday afternoon, January 31st, at 1:30 o'clock.

All club members and those who are interested in becoming members are urged to attend. Frances Mae, refreshment committee chairman, is asking that each person attending bring twenty cents to help pay for the refreshments.

Frank Harrington left the first of last week for Sacramento, California, to see his brother who is ill. He has been employed at the Martin Arnold ranch near Gaylor since some time in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Glade Krewson are now nicely settled in their new home. They came here from Coquille about the middle of January and brought the William Kirstein property. Mr. and Mrs. Kirstein and family have moved to Myrtle Point. They expect to leave for South Dakota some time in the spring.

Ray Robinson (Pete) who was injured in the logging woods last week is reported to be recovering nicely. Mr. Robinson ran a spike into his leg just above the knee, ranging downward and ending just under the knee cap. He was hospitalized for several days following the accident. He is employed by Coos Bay Lumber company and was working on Bone Mountain at the time of the accident.

Booster Club to Hold Party
The date for the Broadbent Booster club party has been changed from Saturday night, February 14, to Friday night, February 13, due to other parties being planned for the night of the fourteenth. An advance ticket sale is being held with Marie Rogers as chairman.

Leonard Watson has sold his timber to Thomas Howe of Myrtle Point and nicely. Mr. Watson is employed as a faller. The logs are being sold to Fred McClellan of Myrtle Point. Mrs. M. A. Daniels returned to Roseburg on Monday of last week after visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Breitenbucher, for several days. She was accompanied as far as Roseburg by her daughter and Mrs. Leonard Watson, who spent the day shopping. Mrs. McDaniels planned to spend a few days at the home of a son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDaniels, near Roseburg before continuing on to her home in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thrower and son, William, Jr., were Sunday visitors at the Leonard Watson home. The two women are sisters. The Thrower's at present are making their home with Mrs. Thrower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Parrish in Myrtle Point, since the place they were living in Coquille was sold several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Breitenbucher and three daughters, Delores, Janice and Becky Lynn, were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Miller in Myrtle Point. The group later attended the show.
