"Life With Father" Features Powell And Dunne At Roxy

Both William Powell and Irene Dunne consider their roles in Clarence Day's "Life With Father" which comes to the Roxy Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday under Warner Bros.' banner, their most important screen portrayals to date.

Powell, whose film career has run the gamut of characterizations from sly detectives to sophisticated villainy, declares that Father tops everything he has ever done. And Miss Dunne, who can jump from musical romances to drawing-room comedy with the greatest of ease, is of the same opinion—that red-haired Vinnie is her finest portrait.

Michael Curtiz directed this stellar duo through their paces in this celebrated American comedy. Important featured roles are played by Elizabeth Taylor, Zasu Pitts and Edmund Gwenn.
