Miss Lenora Hayes Becomes Bride Of Dewey Winklemann In Church Ceremony

Lenora Hayes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hayes of Gaylord and Dewey Winklemann of Powers were united in marriage at a quiet ceremony at the Christian church in Myrtle Point on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Only the bride's parents and intimate friends were present. Mrs. Harold Ross of Powers was the bride's only attendant while Mr. Ross acted as best man. Rev. Phil Tyan pronounced the marriage vows. "Always" and "I Love You Truly" were sung before the ceremony.

The bride wore a beige suit with a white hat and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Ross wore a green suit and a white hat. She also wore a corsage of white gardenias.

Immediately following the wedding the newly married couple were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross, after which Mr. and Mrs. Winklemann left for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Winklemann is a graduate of the Myrtle Point high school and was employed at the Myrtle bakery for a number of years. For the past two and one-half years she has been employed by the Security bank. Mr. Winklemann who graduated from the Powers high school is employed in the logging woods on Rock creek above Bridge where he is co-owner in the P. W. M. Logging company.

The young couple will make their home on Rock Creek to be near Mr. Winklemann's work. She plans to continue her work in the bank and will drive to and from Myrtle Point.
