Rodent Control Movie Slated

"Vandals of the Night," is the name of the film to be shown at the Rodent Control meeting to be held at the Broadbent Grange hall tomorrow night, Friday, April 30th, at eight o'clock. The program is being sponsored by the Grange, but is open to the public and anyone interested is invited to attend. Willard E. Nelson, Coos county rodent control supervisor, and C. E. Fields, Coos county sanitarian, will also be present and will discuss rats in brief. Supper will be sold during the evening by the ladies of the Home Economics club of the Grange.

"Happy Farmers"
The 4-H sheep club, "The Happy Farmers," met on Monday evening of last week at the home of their leader, Mrs. Ralph Gibbs. The meeting was called to order by the president, Robert Paul. The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were accepted as read.

It was voted to invite Ken Beeson, county 4-H club leader, to the next meeting. The lesson which was on "Purebreds," was given by the leader, Bobby Davis was initiated into the club as a new member. The 4-H charter which had been received was presented to the club and will be placed in the Broadbent school house. The meeting adjourned after which refreshments of cookies, and lemonade were prepared and served by Phillip Fry, Daniel Gibbs and Myrl Root. David Smith is reporter for the club.

Attend Tea
Mrs. Warda Smith, Mrs. Claude Walker, Mrs. Ralph Gibbs and Violet Miller attended the annual Mothers' Tea of the Girls League at the Myrtle Point high school last week.

The tea was held in the band room of the high school which was attractively decorated with spring flowers, carrying out the theme of April showers. An interesting program under the direction of Mary Ann

Downey included readings, vocal solos and piano selections. The highlight of the afternoon was the choosing of the most outstanding freshman girl of the year. Karen Barklow was chosen and her name will be placed on the silver trophy cup. Violet Miller's name was drawn as the mother of the year.

Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Paul were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lee and daughter, Janie, of Greenacres and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ford and two daughters, Jackie and Carol May of Coos Bay. Mr. Ford is manager of the Safeway stores in Coos Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Paul formerly lived in Greenacres and are well known in the Bay area. Additional visitors at the Paul home Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Howard.

Mrs. George Nelson, who with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Armstrong, have been visiting relatives and friends in Portland and Tacoma for the past two weeks, returned to her home during the past week-end.

Several couples from Broadbent and Gaylord attended the dance and pie social given by the Myrtle Point Grange in their grange hall Saturday night. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when the pies were auctioned off. Those attending from Broadbent were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Howard, and from Gaylord were Mr. and Mrs. John Carman and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Luttrell.

Members of the Broadbent Home Extension Unit were guests of the Gaylord Women's club at their club house for an all-day meeting on Wednesday of last week. A no-host dinner was enjoyed during the noon hour. The tables were arranged in the shape of an "L" and were prettily decorated with spring flowers. During the business meeting the Gaylord ladies contributed to the Cancer fund and made plans for a card party to be held at the club house in the near future, the proceeds will go to the Rushing fund in Powers to help purchase a seeing eye dog for a blind girl there. Members from the Broadbent Unit spoke briefly telling about the Home Extension unit and the work they are doing.

Have Guests
Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Watson were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross of Myrtle Point. Leonard Watson and his brother-in-law, William Throver, have purchased a power saw and are falling timber for Lewis Breitenbucher above Gaylord. The Throver's who have been making their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Parish in Myrtle Point, are now living at the Leonard Watson home.

Mrs. Kenneth Bonniksen and infant daughter, Terry Lee, were able to leave the Mast hospital last week-end and return to their home. A friend of Mrs. Bonniksen's, Mrs. Virginia Cadle, who had been staying at the Bonniksen home and assisting with the care of the new baby, returned to her home in North Bend the middle of the week.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Breitenbucher Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George Butts and two daughters, Lola and Beverly, from Astoria. The two families are friends of long standing, having lived as neighbors before Breitenbucher's moved to Coos county several months ago.

Mrs. Fred Tams and daughter, Betty Lou, were in Coos Bay one day last week where they were shopping for graduation clothes for Betty Lou, who is a senior at the Myrtle Point high school. They were accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Watson.

At Arago

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford are the owners of a 1948 Ford pickup. Mrs. Don Trigg visited the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister.

Those of this vicinity attending the mothers' tea given by the Girls League, held at Myrtle Point high school last Wednesday, were Mesdames L. C. Davenport, Woodrow Robison, John Menegat, Charlie Roe, Lynn Schrader, Clarence Butler, John Bretzel, Leonard Sell and Mrs. Harvey Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crawford were dinner guests Thursday at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bernhardt of North Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister drove to Bandon Sunday for an outing.

Rev. George Wheatley conducted church services Sunday and the Sunday school attendance was over 40.

Those attending Bible Study Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Melden Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Schrader and Rev. and Mrs. Richard Cochran.

Mrs. Maude Haga was a Sunday afternoon caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Farrier. Frank Lane left Sunday for Ashland, where he was called by the death of his brother, Will Lane.

In Town From California—Mrs. Florence Hallock and her sister, Mrs. Martin, were in town from Eureka, California, for several days this week.
