Colleen Ireland To Head Sorority

New officers elected at a meeting of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority this week were Colleen Ireland, president; Sabra Pointer, vice president; Bernice Kollar, corresponding secretary; Donna Mae Carmichael, recording secretary, Ann Weekly, treasurer. Arrangements for the formal jewel pin ceremony to be held at the end of the month were discussed and final plans were made for the dinner to be held this week in the Coquille hotel, when mothers of the members and the new pledges will be the honored guests.

The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, May 18.

Mother's Day Honored Sunday

Rev. Father Kelly was the guest speaker at a special Mother's Day program presented by the Coquille Eagles lodge, No. 2196, and held Sunday afternoon in the Union hall.

James Jacobson acted as chairman for the affair and the opening and closing prayers were offered by Rev. Lawrence Guderian.

Against a background of colorful spring flowers the State mother, Mrs. Jessie Adams of Coquille, attended by a flower girl and escort, was honored in an impressive ceremony performed by the Eagles Auxiliary drill team.

Completing the program were several musical numbers which included an accordion solo, vocal solos and a novelty number.

Eagles Schedule Gold Ribbon Class

Coquille-Eagles lodge, No. 2196, are now making plans to initiate their gold ribbon class at a mammoth meeting to be held on Sunday, May 23, in Bandon. The event will follow the pattern of meetings held recently in Myrtle Point and Powers when large classes of candidates were initiated into the order. There is every indication that the May 23 class will raise the Coquille membership quota to the gold ribbon standard.

Spring Flowers Motif For Dinner

Spring flowers decorated the tables when Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunsaker entertained at dinner, followed by bridge. Prizes for high score at bridge went to Mrs. Ernest James and Clarence Osika, while the second prize went to Mrs. L. G. Scharfer.
