Mr. and Mrs. Al Volck and Mrs. Ruth Murphy attended the Coos-Curry Pioneer and Historical meeting last Saturday in Coquille.

Visiting at the Kenneth Thompson home Sunday was Hiram Thompson of Fortuna, California. He is an uncle of Kenneth's and is also the representative there for the Strout Realty Co.

A lovely Mother's Day program was given at the Langlois Community church Sunday morning, although Rev. Mr. Schultz was unable to attend.

Mrs. Wanda Volck treated the fourth and fifth grades last Monday for having finished their bird houses.

The eighth grade graduation program will be held on Thursday evening, May 20, 8:45 p. m. in the Langlois grade school gym. The speaker will be Clarence Brooks of Langlois.

Mrs. Charles Mulkey, Mrs. Frank McCray, Mrs. Elmer Cunningham, Mrs. Guy Tennant and son, Mrs. Ned Crippin and son, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Boice last Thursday.

Visitors at the Whealan home last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. William Easton of North Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kerber are in Roseburg this week on business.

The Junior-Senior Prom of Port Orford high school will be held Saturday, May 15, at their gym, with the "Sunset Serenaders" furnishing the music for dancing. Formal attire is optional.

Fish At The Rogue—Clarence Barton and LeRoy Rice spent several days fishing at the Rogue River and returned with a good catch.

At Powers Woman's Club Serves Luncheon

At a 12:30 annual luncheon served by the losing sides in the "The Band Wagon Contest," the Powers Woman's club closed their work for the year by voting Mrs. Mabel Thorp, their president, delegate to the national convention in Portland, May 24th to 29th.

An invitation was extended to the Coos and Curry Pioneer association to meet in Powers on June 12th.

Mrs. Sadie Richards as installing officer and Mrs. Lois Barber, installing marshal, installed their 1948-49 officers: Mrs. Mabel Thorp, president; Mrs. Clara Briggs, first vice president; Mrs. Florence Cook, second vice president; Mrs. Hazel Lewis, youngest mother; Mrs. Lillian Anderson, treasurer. Each officer was presented with a corsage and the installing officers with a gift of appreciation from the club.

Mrs. Faye Hall presented Mrs. Elizabeth who favored the club with two solos, "Old Pal of Mine" and "Cur-tains of Night," with her own guitar accompaniment. The oldest mother present, Mrs. Mary Farber, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Lillian Anderson, each received congratulations and bouquets of flowers.

The new chairmen of committees for next year were appointed as follows: Fruit and Flowers, Lois Barber; Fine Arts, Nell Rolfe; Publicity, Faye Hall; Pan-American, Nannie Quilhaugh; Membership, Minnie King; Parliamentarian, Helen Gamwell.

At Sitkum

Health Club Makes Unusual Record

The Sitkum Health club completed its year of activity by turning in one hundred per cent of its record books on May 5th. The original ten members carried through the entire year and four others joined during the year.

The original ten were Mildred Strobe, Earl Wilson, Florence Strobe, Sharon Sapp, Charlene Mullen, Donna Brown, Colette Sapp, Esther Bolin, Stephen Sapp and Tommy Brown. The four who joined during the year were Claudia Lambert, Jon and Don Munson and Rosalie McFee.

This club's representatives to compete with other boys and girls of the county for "The Healthiest Boy and Girl" honor are Mildred Strobe and Earl Wilson. This contest was held Tuesday, May 11th, in the offices of the Health department in Coquille. Results had not been submitted when these news items were sent in.

The club has made a very good study of health problems this year, both as it concerned a members as an individual and as for his school and community.

One of their projects has been the care and cleanliness of the school grounds. They provided refuse cans in convenient locations and have kept the grounds free of all litter and trash.

Mrs. Rosabel Brown is the club leader, assisted by Mrs. Ena Kirk.

At Riverton Mother's Day Held At Clausen Home

The Alton Clausen home was the scene of gay festivities on Mother's Day. Potluck dinner, buffet style, was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Detillion, Rosetta Mae Olsen of Bunker Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Olson, Audrey, Bert and Raelene, Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton, Stanley and Freddie, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Clausen, Linda and Joel.

Mrs. Cuma Russell and Audrey spent Saturday evening in Myrtle Point with Mrs. Zinn and on Sunday they went to Charleston.

Nelson Russell and Mike, "Buck" and George Keifer spent the week-end at Sacchi beach fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson and family spent the week-end with Mrs. Simpson's mother, Mrs. Erma Byington at Philomath.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linder and Bobbie were Sunday visitors at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Baumgartner.

Mrs. Hazel Simpson was absent from her class at school on Monday because of illness.

The teachers and pupils want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Olsen at the Riverton store for the treats of candy for the whole school.

Grant Hartwell spent Tuesday in Coos Bay on business.

Walter and Bob Smith spent Friday night at Bald Mt. creek below Port Orford, camping and fishing.

Birthday greetings this week go to Lew Ward Hudson, Evelyn Cross and Mala Thompson. With best wishes for many happy returns of the day.
