Susie Summers Has Birthday Party

Mrs. Clarence Summers entertained at a charmingly arranged children's party on Saturday for her daughter, Susie, on her seventh birthday anniversary.

A miniature maypole, decorated in pastel shades, centered the birthday tea table, and at each place was a Halmark doll, which each little guest received as a favor. The table arrangement was fashioned by Mrs. Howard Moy, who assisted Mrs. Summers with the affair.

The guests were Mary Lynn Anderson, Ann Mauney, Barbara Starr, Gladys Clinton, Nancy Vaughan, Valerie Fields, Janet Benintendi, Janie Holmes, Johnnie Stuller and Stephen Summers.

Students Should Get Security Card

Students who expect to work this summer in industrial or commercial now that they have their social security account number cards, Carl D. Monroe, manager of the Eugene office of the Social Security Administration, said today.

"Of course, students who already have social security cards," Monroe said, "should not apply again, because the same account number is used during an individual's entire life. But persons not having cards should get them before starting to work and show the card to the employer so that their wages may be properly reported, identified, and credited to their social security accounts."
