Mothers Honored By Job's Daughters

Job's Daughters of Coquille honored their mothers at a special evening reception held on Monday evening in the Masonic hall.

Centering the table was an attractive floral arrangement in shades of orchid, and silver services and a silver punch bowl were used at each end.

A Mother's Day song was rendered by Misses Donna Mast and Joanne Newton and an inspiring poem, on the same theme was read by Miss Rose Marie Peart.

Each girl welcomed her mother and presented her with a favor which was a handkerchief folded to represent an umbrella.

During a short business meeting reports on the recent carnival were heard. The sum of $75.00 was netted.

Special guests at the evening affair were Mr. LeRoy Farmer, grand vice associate for the state of Oregon, and Mr. Stafford, master of Sunnyside temple of Portland.

Mrs. Johnson Is Honor Guest

Mrs. George L. Johnson was the guest of honor at a stork shower given on Thursday by Mrs. Ed Aasen.

Mrs. Johnson was the recipient of many lovely gifts, following the opening of which, refreshments were served by the hostess. Each guest received a favor in the form of a miniature bassinette filled with candy.

Those present were Mrs. G. L. Johnson, Mrs. Royce Johnson, Mrs. Frank Woodward, Mrs. Norman Bulson, Mrs. Bud Meek, Mrs. Harry McCarthy, Mrs. Vernon Eldridge, Miss Dorothy Foulignot, Mrs. Dick Barklow, Mrs. Erwin R. Sora, Mrs. Phil Seebor and Mrs. Russell Kollar.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mrs. Stanley Dornath and Mrs.

Methodist Parsonage Scene Of Wedding

Married quietly at the parsonage of Pioneer Methodist church on Friday, May 14, were Natalie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clayton of Coquille, and Leland McNair, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McNair of Coquille. Rev. Lawrence Guderian officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore an attractive suit of grey tulle with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by Mrs. Ed Padgett who was attired in a two-piece pink dress which she wore with white accessories and a corsage of carnations.

Mr. Ed Padgett acted as best man. After a short wedding trip the young people will reside in Coquille.

Grangers Attend Special Meeting

Between eighty and one hundred Grangers attended a meeting of the Coquille lodge on Friday evening in the Union hall. A special Mother's Day program was presented by members of the Juvenile Grange.

Program items included group singing by Valley View school children, a skit given by four young girls, readings by Mrs. Earl Cross and Mrs. John Martin, and two vocal solos by Mrs. William Ziedrich. Highlighting the entertainment were the living pictures performed by the Juvenile Grange members.

Each lady present at the meeting was presented with a corsage, made by the matron and the older girls of the Juvenile Grange.

Quilt Tied By Dorcas Society

The Dorcas society of the Assembly of God church met in the lower auditorium of the church on Wednesday for their monthly work meeting. One quilt was tied and bound.

Mrs. Howard May led the devotional service.

Potluck lunch at noon was enjoyed by Mesdames Benham, Bellmore, Coy, Holmstrom, May, Porter and Ellis.

Formal Dance Given By Job's Daughters

The theme "Japanese Springtime" was beautifully carried out in the decorations when the annual Job's Daughters formal dance was held on Saturday evening.

Wall murals, a false ceiling of brightly colored crepe paper, shaded lights, and a picturesque garden scene, made an attractive setting for the affair, which was held in the Masonic hall.

Over fifty couples danced to the music of the swing band. A novelty number, given by Misses Joan Peart and Carolann Creager, was a vocal duet. The girls were in Japanese costume.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Luckey Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Savage.

General chairman for the event was Senior Princess Joyce Taylor. On the decoration committee were Nancy Godard, Elaine Trull, Charlotte Martin, Pat Clausen, Adrienne Eubanks; on the program committee, Pat Shaw, JoAnn McIntyre, Carolann Creager, Joan Peart, Sandra McCurdy, and in charge of the refreshments, Colleen Chowning.

Royal Neighbors Have Card Party

Mrs. Frank Cedarquist, Mrs. Ellis Martindale and Mrs. Lou Williams were co-hostesses at a Royal Neighbor card party held at the home of Mrs. Cedarquist on Wednesday evening.
