JUNE 3, 1948.

At McKinley

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grensky from Myrtle Creek were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mast and daughter, Mildred King, Sunday. While here the Grensky's also visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Churchill and son, Jimmy.

Mrs. Frank Howard and children, Billy, Jimmy, Larry, and Ellen, June Campbell, Mrs. Reuben Brown and daughter, Alice, made a trip to the Geisel Monument state park, Humboldt Mt. park and also the Battle Rock park Wednesday. They also had a picnic. The children are visiting these parks in order to write reports on these state parks in their Juvenile Grange scrapbook, which will be sent to State Grange.

A 4-H sewing club meeting was held Tuesday at Mrs. Reuben Brown's home. They made coin purses. Those attending were June Campbell, Alice Brown, Phawn Scott and Monica West. Evelyn Zeigler was a visitor at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zeigler and Phawn Scott had a picnic and went fishing Sunday on the old Coos Bay Wagon road.

Phawn Scott visited with Eugenia Hall Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. She had a very enjoyable time. Miss Sandri Shields has been very ill this week with the croup but is getting better.

Phyllis Maiden has completely recovered from the whooping cough, except for a little cough.

A small birthday party was held for Letha Shields Sunday evening. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bradley West and family, Phawn Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Zeigler.

Pat and Mike Payton spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Zeigler playing cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Brown and family went to the cemetery at Bandon Sunday and then to the beach for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hall and daughter, Eugenia, were dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. George Zeigler.

Along with whooping cough, mumps and a croup cough going around, we now have the measles in our community. Dorothy Robinson, daughter, Sherry, and niece, Barbara Wyrick, visiting here from Eugene, got the three-day measles Sunday.

The May Jolly Gardeners' meeting was held Friday afternoon at Mrs. George Zeigler's home, with Mrs. Reuben Brown presiding as chairman. Others attending were Mrs. Ben Hudson, Mrs. S. A. Hutcheson, Mrs. Frank Howard and Mrs. Delbert King. We also had a visitor from Lee, Mrs. Todd. Coffee, cake and ice cream were served.

The Grange meeting for May was held Saturday night at the hall. As Mrs. Mildred King hasn't been well enough to attend Grange, Mrs. Delbert King was nominated in her place as Flora. Also as Mrs. Elmer Wilson hasn't been able to attend Grange, Josie Mast was nominated to take her place as Pomona. Mrs. Frank Howard was appointed in Mildred King's place, as youth chairman. Mrs. Rex Brown made the announcement that Arthur Brown had suffered another stroke and is in the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene. Last reports were not too encouraging. Mr. Brown is a charter member of the Grange. Our master's wife, Mrs. M. C. Miller, is also ill in the Mast hospital.

Two members of the Juvenile Grange, Donna and Tommy Brown, have the chickenpox.

Mrs. B. Sapp, a member of our Grange and Pollyanna club who lives in Sitkum, has a new baby son.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mast, Mildred King and Milford Mast were Mrs. Herbert Beyers from Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilcox of Coquille, and Walter Laird. Also a surprise visit of Mrs. King's daughter and family from Camas valley, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hatfield and daughters, Diana and Dorothy.

The 4-H sewing club met at Mrs.

Reuben Brown's home Tuesday, June 1st.

Saturday night a dance will be held at the Grange hall to raise money for 4-H scholarships to Camp Lawhorn for children from McKinley who otherwise wouldn't be able to go. This dance is sponsored by a McKinley 4-H leader, Mrs. Frank Howard.

The McKinley 4-H dairy club met at Mrs. Brown's home at the mill for their meeting at 11:00 a. m. Those present were Billy Howard, Jackie Brown, James Howard, Larry Howard, and Alice Brown. They also held their 4-H Garden club meeting. Those present were Alice Brown, Jackie Brown, Phawn Scott, Billy, Jimmy, and Larry Howard. Mrs. Frank Howard is their leader for both clubs.

Monday evening Cansas Jean Campbell cut her big toe off while playing with her sister's bicycle. She was rushed to the Falk Hospital by her uncles, Frank Howard and Claud Campbell. Within an hour after the child was hurt, their dog was killed by a hit and run driver.

Stationed In Hawaii

Chief Petty Officer William Yarbrough is now stationed at Pearl Harbor after formerly being stationed in California. His wife, Jeanne Yarbrough, is waiting assignment to a navy transport to join him in Hawaii this month.

Montgomery Ward Wants Local Representative In Coquille

To the woman who can qualify as our local Sales Representative, Montgomery Ward can offer an attractive position of responsibility with a substantial income. Work consists of maintaining a catalog library, follow-up sales work, and a personal solicitation for new customers. Applicants should have the following qualifications: Age 25 to 45, a high school education, broad local acquaintance, residence in Coquille with telephone facilities, and able to devote full time to this work (40 hours a week). Business experience is desirable, but not a requisite for the position as we will give you the necessary training.

In your reply, please state your age, marital status, number of dependents with ages, education, complete business experience, if any, listing name of each employer and length of service, and two personal references. References will not be verified nor present employer contacted without consent of the applicant. Personal interviews will be arranged in Coquille for those who qualify.

Address replies to L. Jones, Manager, General Personnel, Montgomery Ward, Portland, Ore.
