Methodist Church Scene of Wedding

United in marriage at an early June wedding were Miss Avis Miriam Hudson, of Reedsport, formerly of Coquille, and Alfred Dwight Thieson of Salem. Pioneer Methodist church, Coquille, decorated with pink snapdragons and roses arranged in tall baskets, was the setting for the candlelight ceremony at which Rev. Lawrence Gunderian officiated, and which took place Saturday, June 5, at two o'clock.

The bride, gown in ivory satin and lace, was given in marriage by her father. Her veil was full-length and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. John Pinkston, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of pastel pink with matching headress and carried white roses.

Duane Thieson of Salem was his brother's best man and ushers were John Pinkston and Harlan R. Ratzlaff of Salem.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Harlan Ratzlaff of Salem.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Thieson will make their home in Reedsport where they will teach in the schools. Mr. Thieson is completing a college course at Monmouth during the summer.

Mrs. Thieson is the daughter of Mrs. Hugh Hudson of Anaheim, Calif.

Double Wedding Ceremony Performed

The Church of Christ, Coquille, was beautifully decorated with rhododendrons, iris and sweet peas for the double wedding which united in marriage Mrs. Edna M. Danielson, daughter of Mrs. Alma Halter, Coquille, to Cecil W. Little, son of J. E. Little, and Miss Lila J. Danielson, daughter of Mrs. Edna Danielson, to Harry W. Spaulding, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spaulding. Rev. Earl Soward officiated at the double ring ceremony which was performed on June 6.

Mrs. Danielson was attired in a beige suit with which she wore a corsage of carnations and gardenias. Miss Danielson wore a suit of teal blue with a corsage of gardenias and carnations.

The wedding music was played by Bobbie Burns.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Vernon Brockman poured and assisting were Mrs. Jess Ewing, Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. George Wilson. The two wedding cakes were cut by the brides.

The two couples left on a brief honeymoon trip to Portland. On their return they will be at home in Coquille.

Trip To Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Summers and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Hickam motored to Medford. On the return trip they were accompanied by the Hickam's niece and nephew, Kerry and Darla Smith, who have been attending school in Medford.

B. P. W. Install New Officers

The installation of officers, convention reports and important business contributed to an interesting meeting of the Business and Professional Women Monday evening.

Highlight of the evening was the installation of officers.

The Past Presidents' club had charge of this beautiful and impressive ceremony. Hattie Lee Holimon gave the installation charges to the following officers: president, Arlene Robertson; first vice president, Mabel Hughes; second vice president, Eleanor Gutman; secretary, Alice Klenz; treasurer, June Simmons; education chairman, Sylvia Irelan; public affairs chairman, Bertha Smith; music and arts chairman, Inez Rover; courtesy chairman, Bess Maury. Other chairmen who were absent will be installed at a future date.

Sylvia Irelan sang "The Golden Key" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Inez Rover and Arlene Robertson were then asked to come forward. Each past president presented Miss Robertson with roses and Miss Rover received a lovely gift in appreciation of her very successful year as club president.

ident. Eleanor Barton and Florence Barton who were elected to state officers were presented with corsages.

The Fourth of July celebration came in for much discussion. Eleanor Gutman, float committee chairman, and Alice Klenz, reporting for Emma Pierce, concession chairman, told of progress made.

A letter of thanks was read from Darleen Crossler to whom the one hundred dollar scholarship gift award was presented. Darleen stated she was honored to be the first recipient of this award.

A 4-H scholarship was contributed for camp or summer school.

The cooked food sale in charge of Viola Newton was a complete success. Glowing with pride at the many honors bestowed upon the local club, the thirteen members who attended the state convention held in Eugene June 4, 5 and 6, gave interesting accounts of the sessions.

The refreshments of fruit salad, wafers and coffee were supplemented by bouquets of roses for the members and single irises for the officers.

Past presidents in charge of the evening were Hattie Lee Holimon, Bertha Smith, Ida Oerding, Ruth Beyers, Viola Newton and Florence Barton.

Visitors From Michigan—Mr. and Mrs. Fred McClellan have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slee of South Haven, Michigan. Mr. Slee friends, having come to Oregon together as young men. It is many years since the two have visited together.
